Judicial Hearing Officer

The Judicial Hearing Officer (or "JHO") is a retired judge or justice who has been assigned to review uncontested matrimonial actions.

You May Request That A JHO Be Assigned To Preside Over Your Uncontested Matrimonial Action. Paperwork submitted to a justice assigned to the Dedicated Matrimonial Part will be reviewed as part of that justice's overall caseload, which includes trials and motions. Because the JHO is only responsible for reviewing uncontested matrimonial actions, paperwork submitted to the JHO may be reviewed sooner than paperwork submitted to a justice assigned to the Dedicated Matrimonial Part. If you want your uncontested matrimonial action assigned to a JHO, you must sign the Stipulation on Uncontested Matrimonial Action.

JHO Responsibility. The JHO reviews the paperwork submitted for compliance with the appropriate statutes and rules of the court. If the paperwork is in proper order, the JHO will sign the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Judgment of Divorce and the Qualified Medical Child Support Order or Income Deduction Order, if requested. If there are any problems with the paperwork submitted, you will be contacted.
