VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Full Representation: Attorneys take cases on an individual basis. The volunteers work on family law matters, consumer issues, tort defenses, bankruptcy, landlord/tenant issues, and wills, among other assignments.

Can Volunteers Work Off Site? Yes.

Type of Work: Full Representation.

Location, Days and Hours of Volunteer Opportunity: In-house volunteers can work at any of LSHV's 7 offices, space permitting, or take pro bono cases, using in-house space to meet with clients, if they desire. The volunteer works at their preference.

Area of Substantive Law: Family Law, Consumer Law, Tort Defense, Bankruptcy Law, Landlord/Tenant, and Trusts & Estates.

Supervision: The Pro Bono Coordinator handles the supervision of LSHV's volunteers as needed. In certain instances the volunteer is assigned a mentor. During the case, LSHV asks the attorney to submit case updates. These simple forms include a summary of the services rendered and pro bono hours spent on the case.

Training: Training materials include written materials, provided at CLE or at a later time forwarded to attorney; mentoring by staff attorneys and other pro bono attorneys available.

REQUIREMENTS OF VOLUNTEER

Time Commitment: The amount of hours spent on a case depends on the nature of the project. We ask that the attorney accept up to two cases a year. The attorney is not referred a second case until the first is completed.

Previous Experience in Substantive Law Required: No.

Specific/Previous Training Required: No.
