LOCATION: Seventh Judicial District Administrative Office, Rochester, New York
BASE SALARY: To Be Determined CLASSIFICATION: Exempt-Confidential

QUALIFICATIONS: Master's degree in Public or Business Administration from an accredited college or university and five (5) years of relevant experience; or an equivalent combination of education and experience. While these are minimum qualifications for this title, consideration may be given to education & experience directly related to the assignment.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF WORK: District Executives are the highest ranking non-judicial employees in the District Administrative Judges Offices. District Executives are directly supervised by an Administrative Judge and provide managerial analysis of complex problems. They serve in a confidential capacity and assist the Administrative Judge in managing ongoing administrative duties, oversee special projects, oversee and prepare reports, manage budget and payroll preparation, personnel management and employee relations, deployment of non-judicial personnel and coordination with non-court agencies. District Executives also perform other related duties.

TYPICAL DUTIES: Perform managerial analysis of complex court operations and prepare reports and recommendations; Act as a representative of the Administrative Judge in conferences with court administrators and the Office of Court Administration to resolve managerial issues. Counsel local court administrators in administrative procedures. Review requests for structural changes, new positions and reclassifications from local courts and recommend appropriate action to the Administrative Judge. Supervise administrative and clerical personnel. Supervise budget preparation for all courts and agencies within the jurisdiction. Consult with judges and court administrators regarding court policy, administrative structure, uniform procedures and new initiatives. Serve as liaison with court administrators to resolve administrative problems as directed by the Administrative Judge. Review and analyze statistical reports for compliance with standards and goals, research problems and propose solutions. Review payroll transactions for compliance with Civil Service Law and rules of the Chief Administrator. Research administrative problems, analyze data, prepare reports and recommendations for the Administrative Judge.

GENERAL INFORMATION: The above statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work being performed by persons assigned to this title. They do not include all job duties performed by employees in the title, and every position does not necessarily require these duties. Although a position is available and situated at a specific location, the appointee may be subject to reassignment to any position in the same title in this promotion unit dependent upon the needs of the Unified Court System. Special arrangements for the disabled may be made by contacting the 7th Judicial District's Human Resources Unit at (585) 454-4242 prior to the interview. All applications received from this announcement may be used to fill any vacancies in this title that may occur in this court or agency within the next six (6) months. Position (s) available at the present time: 1.
