POSITION TITLE: SENIOR COURT ANALYST (Child Welfare Court Improvement Project Coordinator)

LOCATION: 9th JUDICIAL DISTRICT
WESTCHESTER COUNTY

BASE SALARY: $65,652 + $4,200 LOCATION PAY

QUALIFICATION: ONE YEAR IN THE COURT ANALYST TITLE; OR BACHELOR'S DEGREE FROM AN ACCREDITED COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY AND TWO (2) YEARS OF RELEVANT EXPERIENCE; OR MASTER'S DEGREE IN PUBLIC OR BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION FROM AN ACCREDITED COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY AND ONE (1) YEAR OF RELEVANT EXPERIENCE; OR AN EQUIVALENT COMBINATION OF EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE.

*A master's degree in public policy or social work, a law degree, or an MBA in business administration preferred.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF WORK: Under supervision, Senior Court Analysts work individually or as team leaders, on projects that involve research and confidential analysis, planning and other related work in one or more of the following areas: budget development and court finance; personnel administration; resource allocation; and court system management and administration. As team leaders, Senior Court Analysts supervise Junior Court Analysts and Court Analysts assigned to field or research projects of narrow scope.

ASSIGNMENT: The Child Welfare Court Improvement Project ("CWCIP") is a statewide, federally-funded initiative that supports the Family Court's mandate to promote the safety, permanence and well-being of abused and neglected children. Working as part of a statewide team under the policy direction of the Deputy Chief Administrative Judge for Justice Initiatives and under the administrative supervision of the local Judicial District, the Child Welfare Court Improvement Project Coordinator's responsibilities may include: 1) implementing or assisting in the management of ongoing initiatives and projects designed to improve child welfare court practices, including facilitating and/or participating in collaborative groups consisting of the court, child welfare system and other key stakeholders; 2) coordinating training programs with respect to these initiatives; 3) providing technical assistance in key specialty areas to family court judges and court managers, particularly with respect to data outcome measures; 4) providing technical assistance to promote compliance with the Adoption and Safe Families Act, Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, the Family First Prevention Services Act, state law and other statutory and regulatory mandates affecting the processing of child welfare matters in the family courts. The incumbent supports the court system's role in federal review processes such as the Title IV-E and Child and Family Services reviews. A thorough working knowledge of family court and child welfare system operations, family law and child welfare policy is required. Child Welfare Court Improvement Project Coordinators support the Family Courts within the Judicial District(s) to which they are assigned. The position requires frequent travel within the District and occasional statewide travel.
