

A Virtual Tour of our Remarkable New York City Courthouses, Past and Present

ENHANCE YOUR APPRECIATION of the development in New York City of federal and state law by learning of the architectural history of the courthouses in which so much of that law was actually made. Historic courthouses and the like which will be featured include 60 Centre Street, and its predecessor the Tweed Courthouse; the Federal Courthouse, 40 Centre Street, and its predecessor which was located at the foot of City Hall Park; 100 Centre Street and its predecessor which was located on the site now occupied by 111 Centre Street; and the Tombs.

“New York Legal Landmarks”

PRESENTED BY

Robert Pigott, Esq.

Corporate Vice President & General Counsel, Phipps Houses

DATE: JULY 16TH, 2013

TIME: 1:00 PM TO 2:00 PM

PLACE: 60 CENTRE STREET (COURTROOM 300)

All are Welcome!