

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
APPELLATE DIVISION FIRST DEPARTMENT

-----X

John Doe

Petitioner,

Docket V-000000-00

-against-

Jane Doe

Respondent.

ATTORNEY CERTIFICATION
OF APPELLANT'S ELIGIBILITY
FOR POOR PERSON RELIEF
AND ASSIGNMENT OF COUNSEL
ON APPEAL

-----X

STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF NEW YORK ss:

_____, an attorney admitted to practice in the State of New York hereby certifies, pursuant to Family Court Act Sections 1118 and CPLR 1101 that

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice in the State of New York and a member of assigned counsel program in Family Court, representing indigent parties.
2. The pending appeal is from an Order of Family Court, New York County (Hon. _____, J.) entered _____, which granted/denied the _____. A copy of the Order is attached hereto.
3. A timely Notice of appeal was filed on _____, in the New York County Clerk's Office and timely served on all necessary parties. A copy of the Notice of Appeal with Affirmation of Service is attached hereto.
4. I was assigned as counsel for _____, the Respondent/Appellant. A determination was made by the court pursuant to FCA 262 that my client was indigent and unable to afford the costs, fees and expenses of the proceeding and qualified for poor person relief and the assignment of counsel.
5. My client continues to be indigent and qualifies for poor person relief and assignment of counsel for purposes of pursuing this appeal. My client advises me that he intends to pursue this appeal. His address is _____.
6. I cannot represent Mr. _____ in the instant appeal and request that other counsel be assigned to represent him.
7. A copy of this certification has been served upon all the necessary parties to the appeal. A copy of the proof of service is attached hereto.