

Supreme Court, Appellate Division First Judicial Department

In the Matter of the Temporary Suspension
Of Perfection, Filing and other Deadlines
During Public Health Emergency

ORDER

To eliminate the necessity for applications or motion practice seeking extensions of time to perfect or file during this unprecedented public health emergency,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that with the exception of matters perfected for the May 2020 and June 2020 terms of this Court, all perfection, filing and other deadlines set forth by any order of this Court, Rules of the Appellate Division ([22 NYCRR] parts 1240 and 1250), Rules of the Appellate Division, First Department ([22 NYCRR] parts 600 and 603), or Electronic Filing Rules of the Appellate Division ([22 NYCRR] part 1245), are suspended indefinitely and until further directive of the Court;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that with the exception of matters perfected for the May 2020 and June 2020 terms of this Court, all motions or applications for an extension of time to perfect or file that are pending as of Tuesday, March 17, 2020, are granted to the extent that the time to perfect or file is suspended indefinitely and until further directive of the Court; and

This suspension order does not apply to statutory deadlines.

Dated: March 17, 2020

Rolando T. Acosta
Presiding Justice