

Supreme Court of the State of New York
Appellate Division: Second Judicial Department

D17372
O/cb

_____AD3d_____

Argued - October 25, 2007

HOWARD MILLER, J.P.
ROBERT A. LIFSON
DANIEL D. ANGIOLILLO
WILLIAM E. McCARTHY, JJ.

2007-03687

DECISION & ORDER

In the Matter of Jimin J. (Anonymous), appellant;
New York City Administration for Children's Services, respondent.

(Docket No. B-0465/06)

Steven Banks, New York, N.Y. (Tamara A. Steckler and Gary Solomon of counsel), Law Guardian for appellant.

Michael A. Cardozo, Corporation Counsel, New York, N.Y. (Ronald E. Sternberg and Scott Shorr of counsel), for respondent.

In a proceeding pursuant to Social Services Law § 384-b, Jimin J., a child under the age of 21 who has been freed for adoption, appeals from an order of the Family Court, Queens County (Ramseur, R.), dated March 15, 2007, which, after a permanency hearing held in the Law Guardian's absence on March 7, 2007, inter alia, approved the petitioner's permanency goal of his placement for adoption and determined that the educational and vocational components of his permanency plan are appropriate and that continued foster care is in his best interests.

ORDERED that the appeal is dismissed as academic, without costs or disbursements.

December 18, 2007

Page 1.

MATTER OF J. (ANONYMOUS), JIMIN

Upon the call of the calendar, the Law Guardian appeared and advised this Court that, subsequent to the perfection of the appeal, the child had been adopted, thereby rendering the instant appeal academic. Accordingly, the appeal must be dismissed.

MILLER, J.P., LIFSON, ANGIOLILLO and McCARTHY, JJ., concur.

ENTER:

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James Edward Pelzer". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

James Edward Pelzer
Clerk of the Court