

COURT OF APPEALS NEW FILINGS

Jurisdictional Statements of Appeals filed
In the New York Court of Appeals from
April 25, 2003 through May 1, 2003

A list of appeals with short title, jurisdictional predicate, subject matter and key issues is prepared each week.

Some of these filed appeals may never reach decision on the merits because of dismissal on motion, sua sponte, or for time deficiencies or because of stipulated withdrawals by the parties. Also, some counsel fail to file timely jurisdictional statements and thus the list should not be treated as comprehensive for any particular week.

The Court welcomes motions for amicus curiae participation from those qualified and interested in the subject matter of these newly filed appeals. Please refer to Court Rule 500.11 and direct any questions to the Clerk's Office.

For April 25, 2003 through May 1, 2003 the following jurisdictional statements for appeals were filed:

LITTLEJOHN (ALPHONSO), PEOPLE v:

2ND Dept. App. Div. order of 3/28/03; sua sponte examination of whether an appeal as of right lies from the order entered in this non-capital criminal case;

CRIMINAL LAW AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE - DENIAL OF MOTION FOR LEAVE TO REARGUE A MOTION TO RELIEVE ASSIGNED COUNSEL AND PROCEED PRO SE IN A CRIMINAL CASE;

Appellate Division denied defendant's motion for leave to reargue a motion to relieve assigned counsel and proceed pro se.
