US AIRLINE PILOTS ASSOCIATION, an Unincorporated
Association, by its Secretary Treasurer John Owens,

Plaintiff,

- v -

INDEX NO. 655571/2016

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL GROUP, INC. (AIG), AIG PROPERTY CASUALTY, INC., AIG CLAIMS, INC.,
and NATIONAL UNION FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PITTSBURGH, PA,

Defendants.

Administrative Order:

By letter dated April 28, 2017, counsel for defendant National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, Pa. requests a transfer of this action to the Commercial Division. The other three defendants have been dismissed from the case, and I am advised that plaintiff has no opposition to the request. Good cause to excuse the delay in filing the Commercial Division Addendum has been demonstrated.

This is a declaratory judgment action, whereby the plaintiff seeks a defense and indemnification for various lawsuits under commercial liability insurance policies issued by the defendant insurers. Assignment to the Commercial Division is appropriate under Commercial Division Rule 202.70 (b) (1) (breach of contract involving business matters) and Commercial Division Rule 202.70 (b) (10) ("commercial insurance coverage").

The request is granted. The General Clerk's Office is directed to randomly reassign this case from Part 55 (Kern, J.) to a Justice of the Commercial Division, and to reschedule the preliminary conference, currently scheduled on May 30, 2017.
