Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. The term includes: (i) an Indian tribe; and (ii) a foreign jurisdiction that has enacted a law or established procedures for issuance and enforcement of support orders which are substantially similar to the procedures under this article, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act.

A Petition under Article 4 5-B of the Family Court Act having been filed with this Court, and annexed hereto

YOU ARE HEREBY SUMMONED to appear before this Court at _____, New York, on _____, at _____ o'clock in the _____noon of that day to answer the petition and to be dealt with in accordance with Article 4 5-B of the Family Court Act.

You must provide the court with the proof of your income and assets by _____, on the attached form provided for that purpose. You are required to attached current and representative paycheck stubs and most recently filed state and federal income tax returns to said form.

You may be required to furnish past and present income tax returns; employer statements; pay stub; corporate, business or partnership books and records; corporate and business tax returns; and receipts for expenses or such other measures of verification as the court determines appropriate.

A temporary or permanent order of support will be made on the return date of the summons whether or not you appear in person or by electronic means.

On your failure to appear as herein directed, a warrant may be issued for your arrest.

Clerk of the Court

NOTICE: Family Court Act §154(c) provides that petitions brought pursuant to Articles 4, 5, 6, 8 and 10 of the Family Court Act, in which an order of protection is sought or in which a violation of an order of protection is alleged, may be served outside the State of New York upon a Respondent who is not a resident or domiciliary of the State of New York. If no other grounds for obtaining personal jurisdiction over the Respondent exist aside from the application of this provision, the exercise of personal jurisdiction over the Respondent is limited to the issue of the request for, or alleged violation of, the order of protection. Where the Respondent has been served with this summons and petition and does not appear, the Family Court may proceed to a hearing with respect to issuance or enforcement of the order of protection.
