

Maryrita Dobiel, Esq. is Chief Counsel for the Chief Administrative Judge's Advisory Committee on Judicial Ethics. In that capacity, she researches and drafts Advisory Committee Opinions, fields confidential telephone inquiries from judges at every level of the state's judiciary, serves as an instructor in ethics education programs for judges at every level of the state's judiciary, and manages the Advisory Committee's operation. Ms. Dobiel previously had served the Committee as staff counsel for eight years.

Ms. Dobiel began her career with the Office of Court Administration in 1990 as one of the first attorneys to serve as a law clerk with the Town and Village Courts Resource Center, serving approximately 1900 Town and Village Justices presiding throughout New York State and their court clerks.

Ms. Dobiel thereafter joined Counsel's Office for the Office of Court Administration and was responsible for negotiating and preparing contracts, prosecuting employee disciplinary proceedings and serving as counsel to the Local Courts Advisory Committee.

From January 2000 until April 2006, under the Chief Administrative Judge for Courts Outside New York City, Ms. Dobiel served as Assistant Deputy Counsel for Town and Village Justices and Court Clerks Education and Administration. She was responsible for coordinating and administering statewide basic and continuing judicial education programs for Town and Village Justices and Court Clerks, and for maintaining the Office of Court Administration's records concerning all town and village justices. She also administered the Office of Court Administration's Justice Court Assistance Act Grant Program.

From April 2006 until December 2006, Ms. Dobiel was a staff member for Hon. Judy Harris Kluger, Deputy Chief Administrative Judge for Court Operations and Planning.

Ms. Dobiel also serves as an instructor for the New York State Judicial Institute's education programs for town and village justices and court clerks, and state-paid judges. Also, Ms. Dobiel has assisted the Statewide Special Counsel for Ethics at New York's Office of Court Administration in presenting ethics training programs for the approximately 15,000 non-judicial employees of the Unified Court System and has presented ethics-related Continuing Legal Education seminars.

Ms. Dobiel is a cum laude graduate of the Western New England College School of Law and a cum laude graduate of the State University of New York at Albany.
