

CRIMINAL TRESPASS IN THE FIRST DEGREE
(Weapon Possessed by Another Participant)
Penal Law § 140.17(3)
(Committed on or after Sept. 1, 1969)
(Revised January 2013)¹

The (specify) count is Criminal Trespass in the First Degree.

Under our law, a person is guilty of Criminal Trespass in the First Degree when that person knowingly enters [remains]² unlawfully in a building, and when, in the course of committing such crime, that person knows that another participant in the crime possesses a firearm [or a rifle] [or a shotgun] and also possesses or has readily accessible a quantity of ammunition which is capable of being discharged from such firearm [or rifle] [or shotgun].

The following terms used in that definition have a special meaning:

[NOTE: Add, where appropriate:

In addition to its ordinary meaning, the term BUILDING includes any structure, vehicle or watercraft used for overnight lodging of persons, or used by persons for carrying on business therein, or used as an elementary or secondary school, or an inclosed motor truck, or an inclosed motor truck trailer.^{3]}

[NOTE: Add, where appropriate:

¹ The January, 2013, revision was for the purpose of expanding the definition of “unlawfully” when the trespass is premised on a violation of an order of protection in order to accord with the dictates of People v Cajigas, 19 NY3d 697 (2012).

² When the accusation is that the defendant entered lawfully upon the premises but remained unlawfully after license and privilege to be on the premises terminated, substitute the word “remains” for the word “enters” as indicated by the use of brackets. See People v Gaines, 74 NY2d 358 (1989).

³ See Penal Law § 140.00(2).

Where a building consists of two or more units separately secured or occupied, each unit shall be deemed both a separate building in itself and a part of the main building.^{4]}

A person enters [remains] UNLAWFULLY in a building when that person has no license or privilege to enter [remain] in that building.⁵ To have no license or privilege to enter [remain] means to have no right, permission or authority to do so.

[NOTE: Add, where appropriate:

A person who is subject to and knows of an order of protection directing him/her to stay away from a building which he/she knowingly enters, even by invitation or permission, UNLAWFULLY enters that building.^{6]}

[NOTE: Add, where appropriate:

A person who, regardless of his or her intent, enters [remains] in or upon premises which are at the time open to the public does so with license and privilege unless he or she defies a lawful order not to enter [remain], personally communicated to him or her by the owner of such premises or other authorized person.⁷

[NOTE: Add, where appropriate:

A license or privilege to enter [remain] in a building which is only partly open to the public is not a license or privilege to enter [remain], in that part of the building which is not open to the public.⁸

⁴ See Penal Law § 140.00(2).

⁵ See Penal Law § 140.00(5).

⁶ See footnote 1.

⁷ See Penal Law § 140.00(5).

⁸ See Penal Law § 140.00(5).

A person KNOWINGLY enters [remains] unlawfully in a building when that person is aware that he or she is entering [remaining] in such building without license or privilege to do so.⁹
