

CEMETERY DESECRATION IN THE SECOND DEGREE
(A misdemeanor)
PENAL LAW 145.22
(Committed on or after November 1, 1997)

The _____ count is Cemetery Desecration in the Second Degree.

Under our law, a person is guilty of cemetery desecration in the second degree when with intent to damage property of another person, and having no right to do so nor any reasonable ground to believe that he or she has such right, he or she damages any real or personal property maintained as a cemetery plot, grave, burial place or other place of interment of human remains.

The term "intent" as used in this definition has its own special meaning in our law. I will now give you the meaning of that term.

INTENT means a conscious objective or purpose. Thus, a person acts with intent to damage property of another person when his or her conscious objective or purpose is to do so.¹

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all of the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, each of the following three elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the county of (county), the defendant, (defendant's name), damaged real or personal property maintained as a cemetery plot, grave, burial place or other place of interment of human remains.
2. That the defendant did so with the intent to damage property of another person; and

3. That the defendant had no right to cause such damage nor any reasonable ground to believe he/she had such right.

Therefore, if you find that the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt each of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of the crime of Cemetery Desecration in the Second Degree as charged in the _____ count.

On the other hand, if you find that the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt any one or more of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of the crime of Cemetery Desecration in the Second Degree as charged in the _____ count.
