<sup>1</sup>This statute envisions two different methods of committing the crime: one in which the defendant rides or attempts to ride without paying a fare required to be paid in advance, for example by jumping a subway turnstile; and one in which the defendant rides and then avoids or attempts to avoid paying a fare due at the end of the ride, for example by refusing to pay a taxi fare. This charge deals with the former situation; the charge at 165-1062, post, deals with the latter.

effect that objective.<sup>3</sup>

OBTAIN includes, but is not limited to, the bringing about of a transfer, or purported transfer, of a service or of a legal interest therein, whether to the obtainer or another person.<sup>4</sup>

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, both of the following two elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the county of (county), the defendant, (defendant's name), obtained or attempted to obtain railroad [or subway] [or bus] [or air] [or taxi] [or public transportation] service, without payment of the lawful charge for such service, by force [or intimidation] [or stealth] [or deception] [or mechanical tampering] [or unjustifiable failure or refusal to pay]; and
2. That the defendant did so with the intent to obtain such service without payment of the lawful charge.

If you find the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt both of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of this crime.

If you find the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt either one or both of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of this crime.
