(Committed on or after Nov. 1, 1992)

The (specify) count is Theft of Services.

Under our law, a person is guilty of Theft of Services when, obtaining [or having] control over labor in the employ of another person [or of business (or commercial) (or industrial) equipment (or facilities) of another person], knowing that he or she is not entitled to the use thereof, and with intent to derive a commercial [or substantial] benefit for himself or herself [or a third person], that person uses [or diverts to the use of himself or herself (or a third person)] such labor [or equipment] [or facilities].

The following terms used in that definition have a special meaning:

[OBTAIN includes, but is not limited to, the bringing about of a transfer, or purported transfer, of a service or of a legal interest therein, whether to the obtainer or another.<sup>1</sup>]

KNOWING one is not entitled to the use of labor [or equipment] [or facilities] means being aware that one is not entitled to the use of such labor [or equipment] [or facilities].<sup>2</sup>

INTENT means conscious objective or purpose.<sup>3</sup> Thus, a person acts with intent to derive a commercial [or substantial] benefit for himself or herself [or a third person] when that person's conscious objective or purpose is to derive a commercial [or substantial] benefit for himself or herself [or a third person].
