A defendant INTENTIONALLY places or attempts to place a person for whose protection an order was issued in reasonable fear of physical injury, serious physical injury or death when that defendant's conscious objective or purpose is to do so.⁴

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, each of the following three elements:

1. That on or about (date), the (specify) court issued an order of protection that was duly served, or such order of which the defendant had actual knowledge because he/she was present in court when such order was issued;

4. That the defendant did so intentionally.

Therefore, if you find that the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt each of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of the crime of Criminal Contempt in the First Degree as charged in the _____ count.

⁴ See Penal Law § 15.05(1).

On the other hand, if you find that the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt any one or more of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of Criminal Contempt in the First Degree as charged in the _____ count.
