a house of prostitution or a prostitution business or enterprise involving prostitution activity by two or more persons in prostitution; or a business that sells travel-related services knowing that such services include or are intended to facilitate travel for the purpose of patronizing a person in prostitution, including to a foreign jurisdiction and regardless of the legality of prostitution in said foreign jurisdiction.

<sup>1</sup> This charge was first revised, effective November 1, 2007, to include an amendment by the Laws of 2007, chapter 74, adding the words “or a business that sells travel-related services knowing that such services include or are intended to facilitate travel for the purpose of patronizing a prostitute, including to a foreign jurisdiction and regardless of the legality of prostitution in said foreign jurisdiction.”

This charge was next revised, effective January 19, 2016, to include amendments made by the Laws of 2015, chapter 368. Those amendments in the definition of the crime substituted the words: “persons in prostitution” for “prostitutes” in the phrase “two or more...”; and substituted the words “person for prostitution” for the word “prostitute” in the phrase “patronizing a ...” Also, the definitions of “advances prostitution” and “profits from prostitution” were amended to substitute “person in prostitution” for the word: “prostitute.”

Some of the terms used in this definition have their own special meaning in our law. I will now give you the meaning of the following terms: "prostitution," "advances prostitution," "profits from prostitution," ["patronizing a prostitute"] and "knowingly."

PROSTITUTION means the act or practice of engaging, or agreeing or offering to engage in sexual conduct with another person in return for a fee.<sup>2</sup>

A person ADVANCES PROSTITUTION when, acting other than as a person in prostitution or as a patron thereof, he or she knowingly causes or aids a person to commit or engage in prostitution, procures or solicits patrons for prostitution, provides persons or premises for prostitution purposes, operates or assists in the operation of a house of prostitution or a prostitution enterprise, or engages in any other conduct designed to institute, aid or facilitate an act or enterprise of prostitution.<sup>3</sup>

A person PROFITS FROM PROSTITUTION when, acting other than as a person in prostitution receiving compensation for personally rendered prostitution services, he or she accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he or she participates or is to participate in the proceeds of prostitution activity.<sup>4</sup>

[A person PATRONIZES A PERSON FOR PROSTITUTION<sup>5</sup> when:

pursuant to a prior understanding, he or she pays a fee to another person as compensation for such person or a third person having engaged in sexual conduct<sup>6</sup> with him or her; or he or she pays or agrees to pay a fee to another person pursuant to an understanding that in return therefor such person or a third person will engage in sexual conduct with him or her; or he or she solicits or requests another person to engage in sexual conduct with him or her in return for a fee.<sup>7]</sup>

A person KNOWINGLY advances or profits from prostitution when that person is aware that he or she is advancing or profiting from prostitution.<sup>8</sup>

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all of the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, both of the following two elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the county of (County), the defendant, (defendant's name), advanced or

<sup>6</sup> There is no statutory definition of the term “sexual conduct” that is applicable to the statutes contained in Penal Law article 230. For case law interpretations of that term, see People v Costello, 90 Misc 2d 431 (Sup Ct, NY County 1977) (defining the term to include sexual intercourse, deviate sexual intercourse, and masturbation); People v. Hinzmann, 177 Misc.2d 531 (1998)(defining the term to include “lap dancing”);

2. That the defendant did so knowingly.

Therefore, if you find that the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt both of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of the crime of Promoting Prostitution in the Third Degree as charged in the _____ count.

On the other hand, if you find that the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt either one or both of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of the crime of Promoting Prostitution in the Third Degree as charged in the _____ count.
