

CRIMINAL SALE OF A FIREARM
IN THE THIRD DEGREE
(Possesses Firearm with Intent to Sell)
Penal Law § 265.11 (2)
(Committed on or after Nov. 1, 1999)
(Revised July 2016)¹

The (specify) count is Criminal Sale of a Firearm in the Third Degree.

Under our law, a person is guilty of Criminal Sale of a Firearm in the Third Degree when that person is not authorized pursuant to law to possess a firearm and he or she KNOWINGLY² and unlawfully possesses a firearm with the intent to sell it.

The following terms used in that definition have a special meaning:

A FIREARM means any pistol or revolver.³

A person is NOT AUTHORIZED PURSUANT TO LAW TO POSSESS A FIREARM when that person has no legal right to possess it.⁴ Under our law, with certain exceptions not applicable here, a person has no legal right to possess a firearm.

¹ In July 2016, in light of People v Parrilla, __NY3d__, 2016 NY Slip Op 03417 (2016), the charge was revised to better state the law with respect to the element of “knowingly.”

² The word “knowingly” has been added to this definition to comport with statutory law (see Penal Law § 15.05 [2]) and with case law (see People v Parrilla, __NY3d__, 2016 NY Slip Op 03417 [2016]; People v Saunders, 85 NY2d 339, 341-342 [1995]; People v Ford, 66 NY2d 428, 440 [1985]; People v Marino, 212 AD2d 735, 736 [2d Dept 1995]; People v Cohen, 57 AD2d 790, 791 [1st Dept 1977]).

POSSESS means to have physical possession or otherwise to exercise dominion or control over tangible property.⁵

A person KNOWINGLY possesses a firearm when that person is aware that he or she is in possession of a firearm.⁶

Under this count, the firearm need not be loaded but it must be operable. To be operable, a firearm must be capable of discharging ammunition. The defendant is required to know that he or she is in possession of a firearm, but the defendant is not required to know that the firearm was operable.⁷

A person UNLAWFULLY possesses a firearm when that person has no legal right to possess a firearm.⁸ Under our law, with certain exceptions not applicable here, a person has no legal right to possess a firearm.

⁴ See Penal Law article 400.

⁵ Penal Law § 10.00 (8). Where constructive possession is alleged, or where the People rely on a statutory presumption of possession, insert the appropriate instruction as found in the "Additional Charges" section at the end of this chapter.

⁶ See Penal Law § 15.05 (2). For an expanded charge on the definition of "knowingly," see Instructions of General Applicability, Culpable Mental States, Knowingly.

⁷ Case law has added "operability" of a firearm as an element of the crime (see People v Longshore, 86 NY2d 851, 852 [1995]), but has further held that there is no requirement that the possessor know the firearm was operable (see People v Parrilla, __NY3d__, 2016 NY Slip Op 03417 [2016] ["Defendants need only knowingly possess a firearm, they need not know that the firearm was loaded or operable"]; People v Saunders, 85 NY2d 339, 341-342 [1995]; People v Ansare, 96 AD2d 96, 97 [4th Dept 1983]).

⁸ See Penal Law article 400.

INTENT means conscious objective or purpose. Thus, a person possesses a firearm with intent to sell it when his or her conscious objective or purpose is to sell the firearm.⁹

In order for you to find the defendant guilty of this crime, the People are required to prove, from all of the evidence in the case, beyond a reasonable doubt, each of the following four elements:

1. That on or about (date), in the county of (County), the defendant, (defendant's name) was not authorized pursuant to law to possess a firearm;
2. That the defendant knowingly and unlawfully possessed a firearm;
3. That the defendant possessed that firearm with the intent to sell it; and
4. That the firearm was operable.

If you find the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt each of those elements, you must find the defendant guilty of this crime.

If you find the People have not proven beyond a reasonable doubt any one or more of those elements, you must find the defendant not guilty of this crime.

⁹ See Penal Law § 15.05 (1).
