

PRESUMPTION OF UNLAWFUL INTENT PENAL LAW 265.15 (4)

Under our law, the possession by any person of any

Select appropriate alternative:

dagger,

dirk,

stiletto,

dangerous knife

or any (other) weapon, instrument, appliance or substance designed, made or adapted for use primarily as a weapon, is presumptive evidence of intent to use the same unlawfully against another. What that means is that, if the People have proven beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant possessed (specify), then you may, but you are not required to, infer from that fact that he/she did so with the intent to use the same unlawfully against another.¹
