January 17,1964

Correspondence regarding §250.35 - Cruelty to Animals

Number of letters favoring the proposed legislation 0

Number of individuals opposing in general proposed changes, wishing law to remain as is. 383

Number of individuals opposing in particular terms "intentionally" and "wilfully." 156

Number persons protesting proposed revision and expressing desire law remain as it is, but offering as only as an alternative that section be removed to Agriculture & Markets Law. 21

Organizations protesting any change in present law and/or use of "intentionally" and "wilfully."

All Souls Business & Professional Women (56) 56
All Souls Church, Lexington and 81st St, NYCity

Christ Church, Bay Ridge-Written by Rector for himself and "members of my parish."

Humane Education Society, Inc.,Seaford, N.Y. entire membership.

A.S.P.C.A. N.Y.City, represented by Mr. Nichols with full written statement.

A.S.P.C.A. Ulster County, Kingston, N.Y. Whole organization

A.S.P.C.A. Erie County - Whole Organization

N.Y.State Humane Assn. Resolution at Annual Meeting Oct. 31st, to oppose proposed legislation.

Humane Soc. of Port Jervis 284 members protest any change in present laws.

Mohawk & Hudson River Humane Society "protests against and opposes proposed §250.35

Humane Society of Rochester & Monroe County requested to be heard and hopes Commission will maintain Status Quo.

Animal Welfare and Rescue League, Jackson Heights is "vehemently opposed, etc."

Friends of Animals, N.Y.City. Mrs. Robt. C. Schmid appeared as witness in N.Y.City hearings.

Nat'l. Catholic Society for Animal Welfare, Washington. Helen F. Jones Exec. Director, unable to appear but presented written statement requesting it be made part of the record.

Organizations protesting proposed 250.35.- Continued

L.I.Humane & Dog Protective Assn.,Inc., Freeport

The Humanitarian League of Rochester. President M.Moukhanoff and Vice Pres. Ross Tennant appeared as witnesses in Rochester hearings.

Stevens-Swan Humane Society of Oneida

Humane Society of the U.S.-Letter from President Evans.

Petitions

All signed by different individuals giving addresses:

Sent by Mrs.Marie Rycicki, Brooklyn	15
Rally Farms, Dutchess County	25
Mayita de la Valle, Columbus Ave, N.Y.City	8
Letter from Mrs. Audrey Rea,2426 33 St, Astoria, saying "the following people have authorized me to protest in their name". Full names and street addresses given in all cases	29
Virtually same letter sent by Mr & Mrs Jahn Traub, 601 W. 113th St, NYC. Street addresses given with all signatures	23