

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER OF THE
CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE OF THE COURTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me, and with the advice and consent of the Administrative Board of the Courts, I hereby amend, effective October 1, 2006, section 202.7 of the Uniform Civil Rules for the Supreme and County Courts, to add a new subdivision (f), relating to temporary restraining orders, to read as follows:

§202.7 Calendaring of Motions; Uniform Notice of Motion Form; Affirmation of Good Faith

* * *

(f) Upon an application for an order to show cause or motion for a preliminary injunction seeking a temporary restraining order, the application shall contain, in addition to the other information required by this section, an affirmation demonstrating there will be significant prejudice to the party seeking the restraining order by the giving of notice. In the absence of a showing of significant prejudice, the affirmation must demonstrate that a good faith effort has been made to notify the party against whom the temporary restraining order is sought of the time, date and place that the application will be made in a manner sufficient to permit the party an opportunity to appear in response to the application. This subdivision shall not be applicable to orders to show cause or motions in special proceedings brought under Article 7 of the Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law.
