Welcome – Chief Clerk Justin Barry

The big story for New York City Criminal Court in 2013 was arraignments. Criminal Court continued to push arrest-to-arraignment times to historic lows. The average time it took to bring a defendant before a judge for the first court appearance after arrest took less than 21 1/2 hours in 2013, the lowest citywide average ever recorded, and a 2 1/2 hour drop from the 2012 average.

How did we achieve this incredible reduction? The cooperation of all of the agencies involved in this complex process is certainly a huge part of the equation. To be sure, the Office of the Criminal Justice Director, New York City Police Department, New York City Department of Correction, the District Attorneys' Offices, defense bar, and the Criminal Justice Agency worked closely with Criminal Court to bring about this positive change. Coordination of this effort, however, was lead by Administrative Judge Barry Kamins and Supervising Judge of Arraignments George Grasso. Working with Supervising Judges Tamiko Amaker, Alan Meyer, Deborah Stevens Modica, Eugene Oliver and Michael Yavinsky and introducing initiatives such as the bench briefing protocol and CourtStat, an innovative IT solution, to empower judges sitting in our arraignment parts to take control of the entire A-to-A process, Criminal Court judicial and non-judicial supervisors and staff orchestrated this year's unprecedented reduction in A-to-A times.

Arraignments were not the only story in our very busy Court in 2013. While the City and the media report that crime is going down, the amount of work coming into Criminal Court is going up. We saw a 2.3% increase in online/DAT arraignments in 2013, up to 365,752 cases. The workload of misdemeanor and other petty offenses, for which Criminal Court has trial jurisdiction, increased by a similar rate with 314,424 arraignments, up 2.1% from 2012. Despite these increases, the Court has begun closely targeting pending case inventories using a variety of methods – increasing trial capacity, decreasing time between court appearances, speedy trial audits and alternatives to lengthy motion practice – to decrease the number of cases pending in our very busy All-Purpose and Trial Parts.

Perhaps the biggest story for 2013 is that Criminal Court tackled these systemic issues, while its non-judicial staffing decreased to levels last seen decades ago. With years of lean budgets, Criminal Court, along with the rest of the Unified Court System, has been unable to replace staff that have retired or resigned. Our dedicated judges and staff, however, have stepped up to the challenge and have made significant strides in making the Court more efficient and better able to dispense justice to citizens of this City.

Calendar Year 2013 - Executive Summary

This report profiles the work and accomplishments of the Criminal Court of the City of New York in 2013. The report is divided into two sections; the first part is an introduction and summary of the organizational structure of the Court and the second part describes court operations - a summary of the Court's work, arraignments, all-purpose parts, trial parts, community courts and other specialized courtrooms, along with a description of the Court's back office. This report explains how each court operation functions and then provides a quantitative analysis of the work in an effort to give the reader a snapshot of the volume and outcomes.

From November 2004 through October 2012, the Bronx Criminal Division had administrative responsibility over many aspects of misdemeanor case processing in the Bronx. For the most part this report does not address statistical information relating to Bronx misdemeanor operations during this period, since most non-arraignment Criminal Court functions were handled in the Bronx Supreme Court Criminal Division until October 2012. There are exceptions, however. We do report on summons, arraignment statistics and revenue numbers in the Bronx during that period as part of the entire Criminal Court picture. Because All-Purpose and Trial Part case processing returned to Criminal Court in the Bronx toward the end of 2012, many of the Bronx statistics will seem incomplete, e.g. number of calendared cases or number of trials. In many instances these 2012 numbers are incomplete because they will be attributed statistically to the Bronx Criminal Division until October 8, 2012 and the Criminal Court for the rest of the year.

Here are some 2013 Criminal Court milestones :

- 21.44 hour average arrest-to-arraignment time;
- 365,752 online arrest/DAT arraignments;
- 458,095 summons filings;
- 364,583 online arrest/DAT dispositions;
- 1,110,341 cases calendared;
- 646,949 cases calendared in all purpose parts;
- 25,185 total dispositions in Criminal Court felony waiver parts;
- 1,044 pre-trial hearings commenced;
- 1,816 trial commenced (combined arrest/DAT and summons);
- $31,196,723 in revenue; and
- $134,134,895 operating budget.

NYC Criminal Court Jurisdiction

New York City Criminal Court is a court of citywide jurisdiction. As of December 31, 2013, Criminal Court administration assigned seventy-four judges to preside over cases in six main courthouses, two community courthouses, a citywide summons operation in Manhattan, and a summons operation in the Queens Borough Hall.

Criminal Court has preliminary jurisdiction over all arrests processed in the five counties of New York City by state and local law enforcement agencies. Criminal Court arraigns the vast majority of felony, misdemeanor and petty offenses cases in the city.

Misdemeanors

Criminal Court has trial jurisdiction over all misdemeanor cases not prosecuted by indictment and adjudicates these cases from the initial court appearance until final disposition. Criminal Court handles all aspects of the hundreds of thousands of misdemeanor cases filed each year including arraignment, trial readiness, motion practice, pre-trial hearings and trial. The vast majority of misdemeanor cases are disposed by guilty plea, other disposition or dismissal but the Court presides over four to six hundred trials each year.

Summonses

Cases initiated by a summons make up a very large portion of the cases heard in Criminal Court. Summonses are typically issued by police officers for minor Penal Law violations or by peace officers/enforcement agents (and, again, police officers) whose duties mandate enforcement of the local laws (e.g., the NYC Administrative Code). Criminal Court has trial jurisdiction over summons matters, hearing these cases from arraignment to trial or final disposition.

Felonies

Criminal Court has preliminary jurisdiction over felony cases. Felonies are typically arraigned in Criminal Court. Cases are usually adjourned to a Felony Waiver Part to await the decision of the Grand Jury on whether the defendant should stand trial on the felony charges. Felony cases are transferred to Supreme Court after a grand jury votes an indictment.

While Criminal Court does not have jurisdiction to hear trials on felony matters, a very large number of final dispositions on felonies are adjudicated by Criminal Court judges sitting in Felony Waiver Parts. (These judges are designated by administrative orders to sit as Acting Justices of the Supreme Court). These parts act as both Criminal Court and Supreme Court Parts, allowing prosecutor and defense counsel to agree in certain cases to waive presentation to the Grand Jury and instead prosecute the case with a Superior Court Information (SCI).

Organizational Structure of NYC Criminal Court

By statute, Criminal Court has 107 authorized judgeships. Each Criminal Court judge must be a resident of New York City. The judges are appointed for terms of ten years by the Mayor of the City of New York. Any vacancies which occur prior to the expiration of a term also are filled through appointment by the Mayor.

Many of the 107 judges appointed to the Criminal Court have been assigned to the Criminal Term of the Supreme Court in order to handle felony cases. To assist in processing Criminal Court cases, court administrators have assigned to the Criminal Court, New York City Civil Court Judges and, on occasion, a Judge of the New York City Family Court. All judges presiding over a Criminal Court Part on December 31, 2013 are listed on page seven.

The Court is headed by a citywide Administrator who is responsible for the overall operation of the Court. In 2013, the Court's Administrator Honorable Barry Kamins was assisted in this task by six supervising judges: one for the Bronx – Honorable Eugene Oliver; one for Kings – Honorable Michael Yavinsky; one for New York County – Honorable Tamiko Amaker; one for Queens–Honorable Deborah Stevens Modica; one for Richmond– Honorable Alan Meyer; and one for arraignments–Honorable George A. Grasso.

Under the direction of the Administrator, the Chief Clerk oversees the Court's staff of non-judicial personnel. Chief Clerk Justin Barry is assisted in this task by the First Deputy Chief Clerk for citywide operations, Joseph Vitolo. In addition, the Chief Clerk is supported by five Borough Chief Clerks who, along with the supervising judges, oversee the day-to-day operations in each county-William Kalish (Bronx), Antonio Diaz (Kings), Don Vasti (New York), Carey Wone (Queens) and Ada Molina (Richmond). The citywide summons operation is supervised by Robert Cassidy and Andrew Hassell and Toni Bullock-Stallings oversee operations at Midtown Community Court and Red Hook Criminal Justice Center, respectively. In addition Mr. Hassell supervises Community Court operations in Red Hook and Midtown as Citywide Community Court Coordinator.

Central Administration staff also included Assistant Chief Walter Glowacz (court officers), who was also responsible for coordinating security services citywide; Lisa Lindsay (problem solving courts); Patricia McCarthy (personnel), who oversaw a combined Civil and Criminal Court Human Resources Department; Alice Hegarty (technology); Patrick Iannotto (supply and records), who oversaw a combined Civil and Criminal Court Central Services Department; Jacqueline Dupree (data entry); Fernando Smith (interpreters); Gary Patella (cashiering); and Marilyn Vializ (court reporters).

CRIMINAL COURT CITY OF NEW YORK MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION

Criminal Court Caseload – A 10 Year Overview

The total number of online arrest/DAT arraignments increased by 2.3% from 2012 to 2013, 2.0% higher than those seen in 2008 and over 13.5% higher than 2003. DAT arraignments citywide have increased over 115% from 2008.

Although the new York City law enforcement continues its focus on “quality of life” crimes, summons filings decreased by 10% from 2012 to 2013.

Petty offenses, which include misdemeanors, violations, infractions and other low level online arrest/DAT arraignments, increased with numbers 2.1% higher than 2012, 5.3% higher than those seen in 2008, and 17.8% higher than those seen in 2003. Felony arraignments did not continue their downward trend – 3.8% higher than the previous year but 7.4% lower than 2003.

Criminal Court calendared 1,110,341 online/DAT cases in 2013, more than the 943,933 calendared in 2012. The Court saw an increase in pending caseloads (as measured by a snapshot on December 31) but the entire increase can be attributed to inclusion of the Bronx inventory in these statistics.

In 2013, the Court brought 364,583 cases to final disposition, a number significantly higher than previous years, but again attributable to the inclusion of Bronx numbers.

Criminal Court judges and personnel continue to manage a large workload with greater efficiency and fewer resources than it has had in past years.

COURT OPERATIONS – SUMMARY INFORMATION

The charts on pages 13-17 give a summary of the work Criminal Court accomplishes using limited resources - judicial and otherwise - over the course of the year.

Caseloads

The charts on pages 14-16 show the number of cases Criminal Court calendars each year and its daily caseload, or number of cases in Criminal Court citywide, pending as of the last day of the year. These pending caseload numbers are an indicator of the amount of work pending in the Court at any given time and the amount of work handled by judges and non-judicial personnel.

Dispositions

The chart on page 17 indicates the numbers and types of dispositions (or the numbers of cases Criminal Court closes) reported every year since 2003.

This report discusses online arrest/Desk Appearance Ticket (DAT) and summons arraignments and filings. Online arrest/DAT refers to those cases that are filed with the court subsequent to an arrest by a law enforcement officer and the filing of a formal complaint. With online arrest/DAT cases, the defendant is typically detained either at a local police precinct or central booking while fingerprints are taken and a criminal history report returned. Online arrest defendants are held until seen by a judge. DAT defendants are released after printing, at the discretion of law enforcement, and given a notice to appear in court on a future date. Unless indicated, this report groups these two types of cases together into one category.

Summons cases are started when a law enforcement officer issues an appearance ticket to a defendant with instructions to report to court on a certain date. Typically, the defendant is not detained prior to release and no fingerprints are taken. A complaint is then filed with the Criminal Court to commence the case.

COURT OPERATIONS – ARRAIGNMENTS

The arraignment marks the first time that a criminal defendant appears in court. Criminal Court operates arraignment parts day and night, every day of the year in all five counties of the city. In 2013, 365,752 cases were arraigned citywide on On-Line arrest or Desk Appearance Ticket (DAT) cases.

Arraignments are actually the final stage of the arrest process in New York City. Before the defendant appears before the Judge, a complicated series of steps must occur, all typically within a twenty-four hour period. The flowchart on page 27 shows all of the necessary steps that must occur between a defendant's arrest and the time that he or she first appears in court. The defendant must be brought to Central Booking where his or her arrest photo and fingerprints are taken. The fingerprints are electronically sent to the Division of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) where a criminal history or rap sheet is produced and returned to the police in Central Booking. Meanwhile the Criminal Justice Agency (CJA) interviews each defendant for the purpose of making a bail recommendation and the arresting officer meets with an Assistant District Attorney in order to draft the complaint that will start the criminal prosecution. All of these items - complaint, rap sheet and CJA report - must be compiled before the court may arraign the defendant. Once the necessary paperwork is completed, it is delivered to court arraignment clerks who prepare a final file for the court and attorneys, assign a docket number to the case and initialize the case in the court's computer system. Defense counsel - either assigned or private - is then given an opportunity to interview the defendant before he or she sees the judge.

* Some arraignment parts are listed as a fraction. In Queens, the arraignment part that is only opened one day/week is listed as 0.1. In Red Hook and Richmond the parts listed operate half of the time as an arraignment part and the other half as either an all-purpose part or a trial part. Summons courtrooms are not included in this list.

COURT OPERATIONS – ARRAIGNMENTS

In the Arraignment Part, defendants are notified of the charges that have been filed against them and their rights. The judge will also hear arguments from the assistant district attorney and defense counsel concerning bail - whether it is appropriate and, if so, what form the bail should take and how much.

cases disposed of at arraignment throughout all of Criminal Court’s five county arraignment parts, about 50% of all arrest cases arraigned.

Arraignment is also the first opportunity to dispose of misdemeanor cases. In 2013 there were 182,988

* Arraignment sessions are the number of parts opened for the year devoted to arraignments. ** Kings County APAR6 opened for 1/2 day. The total sessions for this part is the adjusted days times 1/2. *** Richmond County sessions were computed as follows: APAR1 # of days times 1/2, APAR2 # of days times 1/4, APAR4 # of days times 1/2. Richmond DAT is not credited with a part day since it is only opened 1/2 hour per day. **** Counties did not enter data for the Hospital ARR Part, except for NY County.

Arrest to Arraignment – The Process

There is a tremendous amount of work that must be done after the police arrest a defendant and before the defendant is ready to appear in front of a judge at arraignment. The police must meet with the District Attorney’s Office, which will in turn draft a complaint. The police must also send the defendant’s fingerprints to DCJS in Albany and await the return of a criminal history. The arraignment court clerks must create a court file, docket number and enter the information into the Court’s database. Meanwhile, the Criminal Justice Agency must interview the defendant and make a bail recommendation.

Only after all of this takes place, does a defense attorney speak to the defendant and file notice that the defendant is ready to be arraigned by the Court. This page highlights the average time between arrest and arraignment for 2013 and how that compares with the previous ten years. This time period is made all the more important by a mandate from the Court of Appeals to complete this process within twenty-four hours.

Arraignment Dispositions

While only the first court appearance, more cases are disposed of in arraignment than at any other stage in the life of a Criminal Court filing. Citywide, approximately half of all case filings were disposed of at their initial court appearance.

Almost all of these dispositions involved misdemeanor or other petty offenses. Disposition rates in the five counties are fairly consistent except for Staten Island where about 33% of all cases are disposed of in arraignments.

Citywide Summons Operation

In the past year, the personnel supporting the Citywide Summons Operation processed over 450,000 summons filings.

The clerks, data entry and office assistants who comprise the Citywide Summons Operation are responsible for scanning, initializing and docketing every summons case filed with Criminal Court.

Summonses come from over forty certified agencies including the New York City Police Department, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, the New York City Fire Department, the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Taxi and Limousine Commission, Off Track Betting Corporation, Tax Enforcement, Roosevelt Island Authority and the Unified Court System.

Authorized agencies deliver summonses to the Court's Central Receiving Unit. The Central Receiving Unit separates these summonses by county and appearance date and then looks for serious defects which would prohibit the summons from being docketed, such as a missing signature or narrative, or improper return date. The summonses are then copied into the Court's computer system using high speed scanners which recognize each ticket's bar coded summons number and converts bar code and data into a digital image.

Once the summonses are scanned into the Summons Automated Management System (SAMS), data entry personnel enter all the pertinent information into the SAMS database and assign each summons a docket number.

After data entry staff log the information and create a docket, the summonses are then forwarded to the appropriate county's summons office where the Associate Court Clerk in charge coordinates with the Supervising Judge's office to ensure that a timely review for legal sufficiency takes place prior to the scheduled arraignment date. Summonses that survive judicial review are then calendared for arraignment.

While individual counties still hear and, if necessary, try the individual summons cases, the Citywide Summons Operation's responsibilities do not end when the cases are sent to the individual counties (Brooklyn and Manhattan cases are heard at 346 Broadway). The Summons team also sends out notices to defendants for cases rejected because of defect or dismissed after judicial review. They are also the central repository for all summons records. Certificates of disposition are given after a review of the SAMS system for cases adjudicated after 1999. For older cases, books and computer printouts are used by the Summons clerical staff to locate and verify summons dispositions going back to 1970.

Plea By Mail

2005 was the first full calendar year that individuals receiving a Criminal Court summons citing a violation of Section 10-125 (2)(b) of the N.Y.C. Administrative Code-“Consumption of Alcohol on Streets Prohibited” (also known as “Consumption of Alcohol in Public”) were eligible to plead guilty and pay a $25 fine by mail. 2005 also marked the first year that this program, originally piloted in Queens County, expanded to the entire city.

A new summons form adding the additional charge

NYC Admin Code 16-118(6) - “Noxious Fluids in a Roadway” (also known as “Public Urination”) was piloted in Queens beginning the Fall of 2009 and expanded citywide in the summer of 2010.

In 2013, 20,691 people chose to plead guilty by mail and send a check or money order to the court. These individuals did not appear in court. This program is another example of the new initiatives that Criminal Court has instituted to more efficiently manage limited staffing resources.

COURT OPERATIONS — PRE-TRIAL ALL-PURPOSE PARTS

The All-Purpose or "AP" Parts are the motion parts of the Criminal Court. Extensive plea negotiations take place in these courtrooms prior to the case being in a trial-ready posture. In addition, depending upon caseloads, the judges in the AP Parts may conduct pre-trial hearings, felony hearings and bench trials.

Misdemeanors are typically sent to the AP Part from arraignments so that the case may be made ready for trial. If, at arraignment, the defendant was arraigned on a misdemeanor complaint and the case was not converted to an information, the AP Part is where the prosecutor will file the necessary affidavits and depositions to make the allegations non-hearsay.

AP Parts throughout the city dispose of tens of thousands of cases each year as a result of negotiations between defense counsels and prosecutors. In the five counties, there were 168,348 cases disposed of in AP Parts, accounting for 46% of all dispositions throughout the year.

AP Parts decide most of the motions submitted on misdemeanor cases. The majority of motions to dismiss for such grounds as facial insufficiency, denial of speedy trial rights, in the furtherance of justice or any other jurisdictional or legal impediment are typically raised in the AP Part. Omnibus motions, which include discovery requests, bills of particulars, motions to suppress evidence and requests for pre-trial hearings are usually filed and decided in the AP Part. Increasingly, district attorneys' offices are agreeing to open file discovery in the AP Part, which involves the prosecutor turning over to defense counsel most of the police reports and information in the district attorney's files without the defense attorneys filing omnibus motions, speeding the way to real trial readiness.

However, the AP Part truly lives up to its name. These parts also hear bail applications; act as the return parts for defendants brought back on bench warrants; hear violation of probation matters; and, to a limited degree, conduct pre-trial hearings and bench trials. Over the years, some of the AP Parts have become specialized. Included in this section are problem-solving courts designed to focus on various societal problems, including Domestic Violence Courts and Drug Courts.

Note: While these specialized parts are AP Parts, for the purposes of this report they are reported separately. Statistics on AP Parts include only "non-specialized courtrooms." Information on the "specialized" courtrooms appears in separate sections.

Felony Waiver Parts

Criminal Court has preliminary jurisdiction over felony cases filed in New York City. Criminal Court retains jurisdiction of the felony cases until a grand jury hears the case and indicts the defendant. Defendants charged with felonies are arraigned in the Criminal Court Arraignment Parts and cases are then usually sent to a Felony Waiver Part to await grand jury action. Once the prosecutor notifies the court that indictment has been voted, the case is transferred to Supreme Court.

Felony Waiver Parts are staffed by Criminal Court judges designated as Acting Supreme Court Justices. District Attorneys' Offices will often negotiate plea bargains in these parts by offering the defendant the opportunity to plead guilty to a reduced charge or receive a reduced sentence. Defendants agreeing to plead guilty to a felony in these parts must waive their right to be prosecuted by indictment and agree to prosecution by a Superior Court Information or "SCI," an accusation drafted by the district attorney rather than the grand jury. Over 25,000 dispositions were taken in felony waiver parts in the five counties in 2013.

Felony Waiver Parts also hear motions, bail applications and extradition matters among other things. They are among some of the most productive courtrooms in the city. Over 132,000 appearances on cases were calendared in Criminal Court's Felony Waiver Parts throughout the city of which over 25,000 were disposed. These felony dispositions assisted the five corresponding Supreme Courts allowing them to handle a reduced post-indictment caseload.

While every county disposes of a large amount of drug cases in their Felony Waiver Parts, the practice differs with other cases.

Domestic Violence Courts

Criminal Court operates Domestic Violence or DV courts within every county. The Bronx, Brooklyn, Manhattan and Queens operates DV Complexes, which include an All-Purpose Part and Trial Parts dedicated to adjudicating these types of crimes. In Richmond all DV cases are heard in the regular AP Part. Because of the budgetary constraints, the Compliance parts were closed.

Domestic Violence courts are forums that focus on crimes related to domestic violence and abuse and improving the administration of justice surrounding these types of crimes.

* In Kings, New York and Queens counties, the Domestic Violence Compliance (DVC) Parts are not open 5 times/week and are listed as fractions depending on the number of days they are open. In Brooklyn DVC is open 2 days/week, Manhattan DVC is open 1 day/week and in Queens, DVC (which is combined with a hearing part) is open 3 days/week. In Richmond county, the domestic violence part (AP2DV) is called in a combined part with 3 other types of calendars and cases.

COURT OPERATIONS – TRIAL PARTS

Trial Parts in the Criminal Court handle most of the trials – both bench and jury. (Some trials are conducted in the Court’s AP Parts). In New York State only those individuals charged with a serious crime, defined as one where the defendant faces more than six (6) months in jail, are entitled to a jury trial. Those defendants facing six (6) months incarceration or less are entitled to a bench trial before a judge.

Trial Parts also handle many of the pre-trial hearings that must be conducted before the trial begins. These include suppression, Sandoval, Molineux and other evidentiary hearings. Data on the number of trials that go to verdict are presented below and on the facing page. Although the data are not presented here, a significant number of non-trial dispositions (e.g., guilty pleas, ACDs and dismissals) take place in Trial Parts, when the parties are compelled to make a final evaluation of the strength and weaknesses of their case.

Criminal Court also conducts a limited amount of hearings upon felony complaints.

Pre-Trial Hearings

Trial Parts conduct the majority of the pre-trial hearings done in the Criminal Court. The statistics below, divided into felony and other hearings, show the number of pretrial hearings. Felony hearings upon a felony complaint, determining whether a defendant should be held in custody while awaiting action by a grand jury, are typically done in a felony waiver part - although they may take place in any court part.

The “other hearing” category is comprised of pre-trial suppression hearings, Sandoval, Molineux and other evidentiary hearings.

COURT OPERATIONS – COMMUNITY COURTS

Red Hook Community Justice Center

Red Hook Community Justice Center (RHCJC) integrates the functions of a court with the types of treatment and preventive services typically found in a community center. Staff working for the Center for Court Innovation have offices at the Red Hook site and provide seamless services to the Court and the public.

RHCJC seeks to address the needs of the community as a whole, and is structured to address them by incorporating a multi-jurisdictional court and housing programs to improve the quality of life for the Red Hook community. The Justice Center provides on-site social services addressing drug abuse, poverty, family violence, unemployment and education. It also houses community mediation and job training programs. All of these services are available to defendants and victims as well as to members of the Red Hook community.

RHCJC also offers innovative programs designed to address the needs of a particularly vulnerable population, young adults. The Youth Court tries to mediate problems between kids before they flare into something that must involve the criminal justice system.

RHCJC incorporates state-of-the-art technology making information readily available to judges and court personnel. This access enables informed decisions to be made more expeditiously and provides the court with the ability to track sentences and compliance with program mandates.

Midtown Community Court

Launched in 1993, the Midtown Community Court targets quality-of-life offenses, such as prostitution, illegal vending, graffiti, shoplifting, farebeating and vandalism. Typically in these cases, judges are often forced to choose between a few days of jail time and nothing at all - sentences that fail to impress on either the victim, the community or defendants that these quality of life offenses are to be taken seriously. In contrast, the Midtown Community Court sentences low-level offenders to pay back the neighborhood through community service while at the same time offering them help with problems that often underlie criminal behavior. Residents, businesses and social service agencies collaborate with the Court by supervising community service projects and by providing on-site social services, including drug treatment, health care and job training.

COURT OPERATIONS - CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION

Central Administration at 320 Jay Street in Brooklyn and 111 Centre Street in Manhattan coordinated and oversaw the operation of Criminal Court throughout the city. Central Administration was divided into three main offices - the Administrator, Chief Clerk and Law Department.

Office of the Administrator

In 2013, Administrator Barry Kamins acted as the chief judicial officer of the Court and assumed responsibility for the overall direction and policies of the Court. Judge Kamins was also responsible for judicial assignments and met with the individual county Supervising Judges on a regular basis to map out new programs and initiatives to ensure that the Court ran properly. Supervising Judge of Arraignments George A. Grasso also worked under the direction of Judge Kamins overseeing and coordinating the Court's busy arraignment parts throughout the City with judges, non-judicial staff and multiple agencies.

Office of the Chief Clerk

Chief Clerk Justin Barry supervises all non-judicial staff throughout the court. Assisted by First Deputy Chief Clerk Joseph Vitolo, the Office of the Chief Clerk's responsibilities include:

- Liaison to the Administrative Judge, Supervising Judges and Borough Chief Clerks;
- Liaison to the Office of Court Administration;
- Budget Preparation and Control;
- Personnel Assignments;
- Operational Directives;
- Citywide Facilities Management;
- Coordination of Training;
- Citywide Summons Oversight; and
- Grievance Oversight.

The Chief Clerk's Office also includes other citywide supervisors who advise and coordinate assignments for their respective staff throughout the city. These supervisors include those for court reporters, court interpreters, technology, compliance, summons, data entry, problem-solving courts and records and supply.

Law Department

The Chief Court Attorney position has been vacant since 2010. Lisa Lindsay, with Sheridan Jack-Browne, currently have responsibility for oversight of this office. The office is responsible for the advising the Administrative Judge and Chief Clerk on assignment and supervision of court attorneys working for the Criminal Court citywide. The office also kept judicial and non-judicial staff abreast of new developments and changes in the criminal law. The Law Department also coordinates training initiatives for both judges and non-judicial employees, including judicial orientation for new judges. Lastly, this office is the primary liaison to the Office of Court Administration Counsel's Office in monitoring any lawsuits involving Criminal Court.
