These rules are in addition to the Uniform Rules for New York State Trial Courts and the Local Rules of Court. Failure to comply with any rules or orders of this Court may result in preclusion and/or sanctions without further notice.

I. ADJOURNMENTS

A. Motions and Compliance Conferences:

1. Applications to adjourn conferences or motions on consent must be received by chambers via email to the Law Clerk by 3:00 p.m. on the business day prior to the conference date or return date of the motion.

If the application is based on counsel's actual engagement on another matter, an Affirmation of Actual Engagement, in conformity with 22 NYCRR Section 125, must be emailed to chambers.

All adjournment requests must be on consent of all parties and must include three alternative dates and times.

All attorneys, clients and Attorneys for the Child(ren) shall be notified of all adjournment requests prior to said request.

2. Letters confirming adjournments are required and shall state that the Court has adjourned the conference or motion on consent of the parties to the specified date, and shall contain the full names of both parties, the index number, a notation indicating the current date the matter is on the Court's calendar, and that all parties have been simultaneously copied. The adjournment will not be finalized until receipt of the confirming letter.

3. Adjournment requests that are left on the chamber's voice mail shall be disregarded, absent extraordinary circumstances.
4. Adjournments of motions and conferences may be granted if there is consent of all parties and prior approval of the Court. No adjournments will be granted without the approval of the Court. If all parties do not consent to the adjournment, an application shall be made by conference call, with all counsel, no later than 3:00 p.m. on the day preceding the scheduled conference or the motion. No requests for an adjournment will be entertained without all parties participating in the conference call. Except for applications made in court, upon approval of the adjournment, a letter must immediately be submitted by (fax/email) to chambers confirming same with a copy to all counsel appearing in the matter.

B. Preliminary Conference:

1. Adjournments of the preliminary conference will not be granted, absent a compelling reason for same. Counsel are directed to review the provisions of 22 NYCRR §202.16(f) concerning conferences. The preliminary conference form must be filled out by counsel prior to conferencing with the Court.
2. Discovery deadlines, certification deadlines, and note of issue deadlines, will be strictly enforced. Deadlines may not be extended, absent prior approval by the Court.

II. MOTIONS

A. Pre-Motion Rules:

1. Except in an emergency situation or where an affirmation is presented demonstrating there will be significant prejudice to the moving party by giving prior notice, prior to making any motion, the moving party is required to serve a written notice to the opposing party of the intention to make the motion and the relief that will be sought in the motion, and offer to make a good faith attempt to resolve the matter.
2. The non-moving party is required to respond in writing to the moving party, setting forth consents and/or objections to the relief requested, within 48 business hours of receipt of the written notice from the moving party.
3. The movant shall submit to the Court as part of their motion papers proof of compliance with the prior above-mentioned notification requirement, which will include copies of both counsel's letters.

B. Submission of Motions:

1. All motions shall be marked “submitted” on the return date.
2. Appearances of all counsel and parties are required on all motion return dates, unless otherwise instructed by the Court.
3. All exhibits must be clearly tabbed. Motions not consistent with this rule will be rejected and returned to counsel.
4. Except for good cause shown, no affidavit or affirmation upon a motion or in response or reply shall exceed 20 pages (double spaced) in length. Affidavits and/or affirmations in excess of the above limits will be returned to counsel to be made compliant with the above limit.
5. Motions are to be served and filed in conformity with CPLR §2214.
6. No sur-reply, affidavit, affirmation, memorandum of law, or letter will be accepted or considered by the Court without leave of the Court.
7. The Court will determine, after submission, whether oral argument is warranted. Upon such determination, counsel for all parties will be contacted and advised of the new adjourned date for purposes of oral argument.
8. All motions seeking pendente lite relief must include a completed temporary maintenance guidelines worksheet utilizing each party’s gross income for the most recent tax year after FICA/Medicare taxes have been deducted.
9. Any motion seeking an award of counsel fees must be supported by a detailed affirmation of services.
10. Counsel are required to provide the Court with a fax number and/or email address with the submitted papers in order to facilitate delivery of the Court’s decision.

C. Application for a Stay or Temporary Restraining Order:

1. Any Order to Show Cause seeking any injunctive relief, including a stay or TRO, must be made in accordance with 22 NYCRR 202.7(f). The moving party shall advise the Court as soon as practicable of counsel’s intent to make such application.
2. Requests to continue or vacate a stay or TRO beyond the return date of the motion shall be made at a conference with all parties present. Failure to apply for such extension shall result in the automatic vacatur of the stay or TRO, unless the Order to Show Cause provides otherwise.

3. An “emergency” Order to Show Cause requires a special affidavit based upon personal knowledge and an affirmation explaining in detail the nature of the emergency. In addition to the foregoing, the movant should be prepared to appear in Court and to make a record before the Court, if the Court requires the same.

D. Interim Partial or Full Settlement:

If all or part of a submitted motion is settled, counsel shall forward the original stipulation of settlement to the Court. Such stipulation shall be accompanied by a letter setting forth the date the motion was submitted, what aspects of the motion have been settled, and what issues remain to be decided. If the motion is resolved in its entirety, the movant shall indicate same. If the motion is resolved, in whole or in part, on the record, counsel shall obtain such transcript so that same can be “so ordered”, unless the Court directs otherwise.

III. COURT APPEARANCES

- A. All Court appearances, including preliminary, compliance, certification, pre-trial and motion conferences shall be scheduled for 9:30 a.m. unless otherwise agreed to by the parties and permitted by the Court.
- B. Attorneys and pro se litigants must alert the Court Officer or Court Clerk of their presence and complete a sign-in sheet. If counsel must also appear before another judge, counsel must advise the Part Clerk or Court Officer where counsel can be reached. All counsel and litigants are directed to appear for preliminary conferences.
- C. While parties are welcome to appear for conferences, they are not required to be there unless notified for appearance by the Court.
- D. Conferences may be conducted via telephone if a request is granted by the Court.
- E. If there are any outstanding motion(s) (submitted or pending) at the time of the conference/trial, the Law Clerk and/or Judge must be so informed of same that day. The submission date must be provided by counsel. Copies of such motions should be available to the Court at the time of such conference.
- F. All counsel are encouraged to be prompt for their scheduled appearance in order to avoid unnecessary delay of the calling of their matter.

IV. COMMUNICATION WITH CHAMBERS

- A. In all communications with chambers by letter, the title of the action, full names of the parties, date matter is next on the Court’s calendar, and index number shall be set forth, with copies simultaneously delivered to all counsel. Ex parte written communications will be disregarded.

- B. Copies of correspondence between counsel shall not be sent to the Court. Such copies shall be disregarded and will not be placed in the Court's file.
- C. No out of Court settlement will be recognized or accepted unless counsel submits a letter, on notice to opposing counsel, and, if applicable, the Attorney for the Child(ren), submitting the executed settlement agreement/stipulation or certifying that such agreement/stipulation has, in fact, been executed.
- D. The Court will not accept ex parte telephone communications on substantive issues.

V. SANCTIONS

The Court will not consider a sanctions application unless the moving party first seeks withdrawal or discontinuation of the offending act or action or demands required or necessary action which is refused. Proof of such request must be made a part of the sanctions application.

VI. TRIAL RULES: APPLICABLE TO ALL TRIAL AND HEARINGS

- A. A Note of Issue and Certificate of Readiness are to be filed within 30 days after certification, unless otherwise instructed by the Court.

The schedule for submission prior to trial is as follows:

1. In limine applications must be on notice to all parties, returnable at least three days prior to the first scheduled trial date.
2. Annotated Statements of Proposed Disposition, in which all of the criteria listed in the statute are provided, and counsel's position stated as to each such criteria for both equitable distribution and maintenance issues shall be submitted.
3. Exhibits: Trial notebooks are not required. However, counsel for the parties shall consult prior to the trial and shall in good faith attempt to agree upon the exhibits that will be offered into evidence without objection, if possible. On the day of trial, each side shall begin to mark its exhibits into evidence as to those to which no objection has been made. All exhibits not consented to shall be marked for identification only. If the trial exhibits are voluminous, counsel shall consult the clerk of the part for guidance. The Court will rule upon the objections to the contested exhibits at the earliest possible time. Exhibits not previously demanded, which are to be used solely for credibility or rebuttal, need not be pre-marked.
4. A list of proposed witnesses, including experts, for the Court's information must be submitted at least two business days prior to trial, together with the order in which they will testify and the estimated length of their testimony.

5. Marked pleadings are to be submitted before opening statements on the first day of trial.
6. Net worth statements must be updated and sworn to within 30 days of the trial date.
7. Parties are encouraged to stipulate to facts and/or exhibits.
8. If deposition transcripts are to be utilized, a copy of the witness's deposition transcript should be available to the Court. Counsel for the parties shall consult prior to trial and shall, in good faith, attempt to agree upon the portions of deposition testimony to be offered into evidence without objection. The parties shall delete from the testimony to be read the questions and answers that are irrelevant to the point for which the deposition testimony is offered. Each party shall prepare a list of deposition testimony to be offered to which no objection has been made and a separate list of deposition testimony as to which objections have been made. At least one day prior to trial, or such other time as the Court may set, each party shall submit its list(s) to the Court and other counsel. The Court will rule upon the objections at the earliest possible time, after consultation with counsel.
9. A list of issues to be determined by the Court, including any pretrial motion issues referred to the trial by the Court shall be submitted by the parties at least two days prior to trial.
10. Both sides shall have available at least four copies of all exhibits (five if there is an Attorney for the Child(ren)) which are expected to be introduced into evidence.
11. Both sides shall have available at least four copies of all deposition transcripts and prior statements (five if there is an Attorney for the Child(ren)), which are expected to be read into the record or utilized on cross examination at the trial.
12. Both sides shall have available at least four copies (five if there is an Attorney for the Child(ren)) of any and all of the following:
 - a) relevant orders issued by another court, such as final orders of custody, support, or temporary or permanent order of protection issued by the Family and/or Criminal Courts;
 - b) any order of this Court that referred issues raised in motion practice to the trial of the action;
 - c) any relevant "so-ordered" stipulation of this Court, as well as transcripts of stipulations read into the record in open court during the pendency of the action; and

- d) any properly executed and acknowledged stipulation or agreement relating to material issues in this action.
13. Counsel are urged to stipulate that any issue relating to an award of counsel and expert fees be resolved by the Court, without testimony, upon the submission of affirmations and other appropriate documentation from counsel.
 14. Counsel are required to stipulate in writing to any and all relevant material facts that are not and should not be in dispute.
 15. On the date the trial is scheduled, counsel are expected to be prepared to discuss settlement of all unresolved issues and to have complied with each of the trial rules set forth herein.
 16. On the day before the scheduled trial, counsel are directed to contact the Part Clerk or chambers to confirm the Court's availability.
 17. All trials and hearings shall continue day-to-day until completed, subject to the Court's availability. Trial shall commence each day at 9:45 a.m. and conclude at 4:15 p.m.
 18. Objections should be stated without argument, except to simply state the ground therefore, (e.g., hearsay, relevance, etc.) If further argument is appropriate, it will be invited by the Court.
 19. Proposed Judgment and Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are to be submitted within 60 days after the Court renders its decision. The submission of the divorce packet will not be adjourned unless expressly permitted by the Court for good cause shown.
 20. Closing Arguments/Summations. It shall be determined by the Court (on the first trial day), in consultation with counsel, whether oral closing arguments will be made, or if a post-trial memorandum will be submitted. If oral arguments will be made, said arguments will not exceed 30 minutes and will be scheduled to begin immediately after the trial has concluded. Counsel for the defendant shall give their closing first, followed immediately by counsel for the child(ren), if any, then by counsel for the plaintiff.

If a post-trial memorandum is required, said memorandum shall be submitted by both sides, as well as the attorney for the child(ren) simultaneously, said submission date to be determined by Court after consultation with all counsel. The right to submit a post-trial memorandum shall be deemed waived if not timely submitted to the Court. Said post trial memoranda shall contain the following clearly delineated sections:

- a) a chronological procedural history of the action, including copies of all relevant orders, written stipulations, and transcripts of stipulations placed on the record;
- b) a recitation of the issues to be determined;
- c) an in-depth summary of the testimony of each witness;
- d) a summary of the findings of any expert report received in evidence;
- e) a summary of the exhibits in evidence;
- f) a detailed recitation of counsel's contentions as to the testimony and exhibits in evidence; and
- g) applicable law.

Post-trial memoranda will be marked as court exhibits and shall be part of the record.

A copy of each side's, and if applicable, the child's and/or children's, post-trial brief shall be served on all other parties, simultaneous with such filing with the Court. Responses to the post-trial memoranda are prohibited and will not be considered. The Court is to be provided with the original of each post trial memorandum. The post-trial memoranda shall have a table of contents. Failure to provide such table of contents will result in the Court not considering such post trial memorandum.
