Prior to the preliminary conference, attorneys or parties appearing pro se must obtain the rules of this Part, thoroughly review them and comply with them throughout the course of any matter assigned to this Part. All of the rules applicable to attorneys are equally applicable to pro se parties. These Part Rules are subject to change without notice, so they should be reviewed frequently by all who appear before this Part.

I. Preliminary Conferences

- A. Adjournments: Requests for adjournments of Preliminary Conferences are to be addressed to the DCM Part and not to chambers.
- B. Deadlines: Discovery, Certification and Note of Issue deadlines set forth in the Preliminary Conference Order shall be enforced. Dates stipulated by the parties are subject to change by the Court.
- C. Adjournments of Depositions: Any adjournment of deposition dates must be to a date which precedes the Compliance Conference date.

II. All Other Conferences

- A. Appearance Required: Unless otherwise directed by the Court, attorneys shall appear in person at the time indicated for all conferences. The Court expects all counsel and pro se litigants to be appropriately dressed for court. All attorneys appearing for a conference shall be knowledgeable and familiar with the case and shall be vested with the authority to enter into stipulations and/or dispositions which bind their respective clients. (See 22 NYCRR 202.1(f) and (g)). Counsel should be prepared to discuss any pending or submitted motions. Self-represented litigants shall be subject to the same rules of practice as attorneys appearing in the part.
- B. Attorneys and unrepresented litigants must alert the courtroom clerk of their presence and complete a sign-in sheet. If counsel must also appear before another Judge, they must advise the Part Clerk of what Part they will be appearing in and how they can be reached. All counsel and pro se parties must appear for each and every conference.

- C. Adjournments: Requests for adjournments of conferences must be made through chambers, in the manner directed below, prior to the conference date. The Court will consider granting such requests upon good cause shown and the consent of all parties. Two proposed adjournment dates, no more than six weeks from the original date, consented to by all parties, must be provided at the time the adjournment is sought. Applications for adjournments must be made on the Request for Adjournment Form included at the end of this document and must be sent to chambers by email or fax. If any party or counsel objects to the adjournment of the conference, so state on the Request for Adjournment form and the Court will contact all parties.
- D. Failure to appear for court ordered conferences may result in sanctions pursuant to 22 NYCRR 202.27.

III. Motions

A. Discovery Motions:

- 1. Pre-motion Discovery Conferences: Prior to making or filing any discovery motions, counsel for the moving party MUST make a good faith effort to resolve the issues at hand, pursuant to 22 NYCRR 202.7(c) and Section 202.20-f. It is the policy of this Part to not accept letters as good faith efforts, unless a series of letters indicates an interaction among counsel and not just a one-sided request or threat. If after a true good faith effort to resolve the discovery issues has been made without success, counsel for the moving party MUST arrange for a conference to be held among counsel for all parties and the Court to discuss the issues involved and the possible resolution of those issues. Requests for discovery related conferences must be submitted on the Pre-Motion Discovery Conference Request Form attached at the end of this document, and must be sent to chambers by email or fax.
- 2. Sua Sponte Order: If the matter can be resolved during the conference call, an order consistent with such resolution may be issued on the Court's own motion on consent of the parties or over their objection.
- 3. Discovery in General: Parties are directed to review, and be familiar with, the following sections of the Uniform Civil Rules for the Supreme Court and the County Court, eff. February 1, 2021: Sections 202.20 (Interrogatories limited to a maximum of 25); 202.20-a (procedures related to privilege logs); 202.20-b (limitations on depositions); 202.20-c (rules regarding responses and objections to discovery demands); and 202.20-d (procedures regarding deposing entities and identification of matters). Parties are also expected to strictly adhere to discovery schedules, as discussed supra and confirmed by section 202.20-e.

B. All Other Motions:

1. Service: Motions are to be served and filed in conformity with CPLR 2214 and uploaded to NYSCEF where appropriate.
2. Appearances: Counsel are not required to appear on the return date of the motion unless directed by the Court or unless there is a contested application for adjournment.
3. Oral Argument: The Court generally will not entertain oral argument of motions, however, a pro se party or counsel may request oral argument by letter accompanying the motion papers in accordance with 22 NYCRR 202.8-f. Should the Court determine that oral argument is warranted, attorneys for all parties and pro se litigants will be contacted and advised of the date for oral argument.
4. Adjournments: Motion adjournment requests must be made through the Courtroom clerk of this part or by submitting to chambers the Request for Adjournment Form (included at the end of this document) prior to the return date. The Court will consider granting such request upon good cause shown and with consent of all parties. A date certain consented by all parties must be requested at the time the adjournment is sought. The Court is inclined to allow each side a brief one time adjournment over objection upon good cause if it is the party/counsel's first request for same. If there is no consent to adjourn the motion, all counsel or pro se parties must appear in court in person regarding the adjournment on the scheduled motion date.
5. No sur-reply affidavit, affirmation or letter will be accepted or considered by the Court.
6. Orders to Show Cause: Motions may be brought by Order to Show Cause only when there is genuine urgency, a stay is required, or a statute mandates so proceeding. (22 NYCRR 202.8-d).

Any Order to Show Cause seeking injunctive relief, including a stay or TRO must be made in accordance with 22 NYCRR 202.7(f). Accordingly, any application for temporary injunctive relief shall contain an affirmation demonstrating that there will be significant prejudice to the party seeking the restraining order by giving notice. In the absence of a showing of significant prejudice, the affirmation must demonstrate that a good faith effort has been made to notify the party against whom the restraining order is sought. Where there has been no significant prejudice shown, the Court requires that the party seeking temporary injunctive relief give the opposing side 24 hours notice in advance of presentment of the Order to Show Cause to the Court. Notice should be given by telephone, facsimile and/or email and an affirmation/affidavit stating that such notice has been provided to the opposing party/counsel must be filed and uploaded to NYSCEF. Upon such notice, any party/counsel seeking to be heard in opposition to the request for injunctive relief must fax or email the Court, on notice to all parties, requesting a time to appear for same.

7. No Reply papers will be permitted on Orders to Show Cause.
8. Cross-motions: Submission of a cross-motion with a stated return date that is beyond the return date of the original motion will not serve to adjourn the original motion.
9. Parties are directed to review Section 202.8-b of the Uniform Rules for the Supreme Court and County Court, eff February 1, 2021, regarding the length of papers.
10. Interim Partial or Full Settlement: If all or part of a submitted motion is settled, a letter or stipulation shall be sent to the court, on notice to all parties/counsel, and same shall be uploaded to NYSCEF. Such notice shall set forth the date that the motion was submitted, what aspects of the motion have been settled, and what issues, if any, remain to be decided. If any motion is resolved, in whole or part, on the record, counsel shall obtain such transcript so that same can be "so ordered," unless the Court otherwise directs.
11. Withdrawn Motions: If a motion is being withdrawn, a letter from the movant requesting withdrawal may be sent to chambers by email or fax and must be uploaded to NYSCEF.
12. Summary Judgment: Motions for summary judgment shall be returnable no later than 60 days after the filing of a Note of Issue.
13. Motions brought pursuant to CPRL 3211, 3212 or 3213 shall not stay discovery unless specifically ordered by the Court.

IV. Communication with Chambers

- B. Copies of correspondence between counsel shall not be sent to the Court except in the limited circumstances provided within these Part Rules and as 22 NYCRR 202.7 directs.
- C. The Court will not accept a fax or submissions without prior permission, unless allowed by these Part Rules.
- D. No out of court settlement will be recognized or accepted unless counsel submits a letter, on notice to opposing counsel/parties, submitting the executed settlement

The filing of a Note of Issue is a condition precedent to the commencement of any trial.
- B. Motions in limine: Counsel shall notify the Court as soon as the trial assignment is made, or at the trial conference if unable to do so sooner, of any motions in limine and any supporting statutory or case law. Counsel shall submit a brief written affirmation and/or memorandum of law setting forth the nature of the application and any supporting authority or case law. Motions in limine should be e-filed as "Pre-Trial Memorandum" document type on NYSCEF and emailed to jjorgens@nycourts.gov and JudgePetersonRemote@nycourts.gov.

Where the testimony has been transcribed, page references will be required.
- H. Non-Jury Trials: Non-jury trials are subject to scheduling upon forty-eight hours notice. An in person conference with the Court shall precede the commencement of all non-jury trials, at which time counsel shall provide the Court with the following: (1) a copy of marked pleadings, amendments thereto, and all bills of particulars; (2) A list of pre-marked exhibits and the identification of those exhibits which counsel cannot stipulate to admit into evidence at trial; (3) a list of witnesses and if any be experts, the information required by CPLR 3101(d)(1)(i); (4) a list of the causes of action to be tried; and (5) pre-trial memorandums of law, if any. - I. Disposition of Cases: If a pending action has been settled, counsel shall notify chambers by email or fax that the matter has been settled and shall upload such notice to NYSCEF. Counsel shall further upload settlement documents within 20 days.

VII. Miscellaneous Rules

- A. Court personnel: The Court functions with the aid and support of the courtroom and chambers personnel. The Court and the personnel assigned to the Court will treat counsel, litigants and other persons present with dignity and courtesy, which is indispensable to the proper administration of justice. The Court expects that court personnel will be treated in like manner and the Court will not tolerate disrespectful or abusive conduct.

- B. Attorneys of Record: Attorneys who have appeared in the matter are to make all appearances until they are relieved by the Court or until a Consent to Change Attorney has been filed in NYSCEF and with this part by email or fax.

Compliance with the provisions of CPLR Sections 1207, 1208, and 22 NYCRR 202.67 and a proposed distribution of net amounts to be recovered by the disabled plaintiff that is consistent with the provisions of the CPLR 1206 is required. The report must indicate whether the injured plaintiff has fully recovered, and if not, the nature and extent of the injuries and the costs of future treatment. Since the Court may direct that notice of the application be given to all persons who possess claims against the proceeds recoverable under the compromise, including those with statutory liens, the names and addresses of all such persons and the amount of their prospective claims must be set forth in the petition. - F. Paper Submission to NYSCEF: Counsel must seek permission of the Court for the submission of "evidentiary" materials to NYSCEF, unless such materials are exhibits to a formally submitted motion or an approved filing. The abuse of the NYSCEF filing system may be sanctionable by the Court.
