

SUPREME COURT - NASSAU COUNTY - IAS PART 19
PART RULES & PROCEDURES (effective 1/8/21)

Justice: Hon. Helen Voutsinas
Law Clerk: Michael Belitsis, Esq.
Assistant Law Clerk: Sasha Tinis, Esq.
Part Clerk: Michael Campisi

Phone: (516) 493-3207
Courtroom: (516) 493-3210
Fax: (516) 493-3387

Counsel are expected to be fully familiar with and to abide by the new rules promulgated by Administrative Order 270/2020, effective February 1, 2021, as incorporated into the Uniform Civil Rules for the Supreme Court and County Court (22 NYCRR 202.1 et seq) (hereinafter “Uniform Rules”). In the event of any conflict between these part rules and the Uniform Rules, the latter shall control. Unless otherwise ordered, matters before the Court shall be conducted in accordance with the following rules, as well as the Uniform Civil Rules for the New York State Trial Courts:

I. COURT PERSONNEL

A. The Court endeavors daily to do the public’s work competently, efficiently, and with the dignity befitting this duty. To that end, the Court relies on the assistance and support of Supreme Court and Chambers personnel.

The Court and personnel assigned to the Court will treat counsel, litigants and other persons present in a courteous, civil, and professional manner.

The Court expects court personnel to be treated in like manner. These principles are indispensable to the proper administration of justice.

II. COUNSEL

A. Welcome to Part 19. Knowledgeable, timely, and prepared counsel are an integral part of an overall well-functioning court Part. We appreciate your efforts in that regard. To that end, attorneys shall comport themselves in accordance with the rules established in 22 NYCRR §700.4, the Rules of Professional Conduct, and the NYS Standards of Civility. Self-represented litigants are subject to the same rules of practice as attorneys appearing in this Part.

- B. All appearances shall be made by counsel (including per diems) with knowledge of the facts and with authority to enter into stipulations and/or dispositions which bind their respective clients. The failure to comply with this rule or the failure to appear in a timely fashion may subject counsel to one or more of the sanctions authorized by 22 NYCRR §202.27 and/or 22 NYCRR Part 130-2.
- C. All appearances are to be made by Microsoft Teams, unless otherwise directed by the Court. All counsel are reminded that appearing “virtually” is the same as appearing in person and that they should appear in a professional manner.

III. COMMUNICATION WITH CHAMBERS

- A. No ex parte communication with the Court on any substantive issue is permitted.
- B. Communication with chambers shall be by emailed letter, which must set forth the title of the action, the full names of the parties, as well as index number, with copies simultaneously provided to all counsel, and to any respective pro se litigants (by mail if no fax available).
- C. In the case of E-filed matters, communication with the Court shall also be in emailed letter form, which must set forth the title of the action, the full names of the parties, index number, and shall be submitted to the court by emailing the letter to chambers in the E-File, with copies to all counsel, and to any respective pro se litigants.

- D. Copies of correspondence between counsel shall not be sent to the Court, except as 22 NYCRR 202.7 and these Part Rules permit.
- E. Telephone calls, except as set forth below, are permitted only in emergency situations requiring immediate attention.
- F. Fax communication to Chambers is not permitted without prior authorization, or as expressly permitted herein.

IV. CONFERENCES

A. Preliminary Conference (“PC”)

1. All preliminary conferences will be held by the PC part via Microsoft Teams as directed by the PC part.
2. Prior to the PC, attorneys and parties appearing pro se must obtain the Rules of the Part, review them and comply with them throughout the pendency of the matter. Pro se litigants should note that the Rules applicable to attorneys are equally applicable to pro se litigants.
3. PC adjournment requests shall be addressed to the DCM Clerk’s office and not to Chambers.
4. The PC Stipulation and Order must be completely filled out, must be legible, and must contain the full caption of the action, and must provide a summary of the action.
5. Definitive dates for the production of documents and examinations before trial (EBTs) are required to be set forth in the PC Order and shall be enforced.

6. No adjournment of these dates will be granted in the absence of consent of the Court.

B. Compliance/Certification Conferences

1. Part 19 conferences will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays, unless otherwise directed, via Microsoft Teams until further notice.
2. Attorneys and pro se litigants shall appear for all conferences, unless otherwise directed by the Court, via Microsoft Teams until further notice.
3. Appearances shall be at the time directed by the Part, via Microsoft Teams.
4. Counsel appearing on multiple matters in multiple Parts must appropriately prioritize their schedules, in order to avoid unreasonably late appearances.
5. All counsel (including per diems) and pro se litigants appearing on a matter shall be knowledgeable about the case and fully authorized to enter into stipulations, both substantive and procedural, on behalf of their clients.
6. Counsel appearing at a certification conference must have authority to enter into stipulations and/or dispositions which bind their respective clients, must have access to their respective clients, and must be prepared to enter into good faith settlement discussions with the Court.
7. Counsel are advised to confirm all scheduled appearances with his/her adversary the day prior to the scheduled appearance in order to facilitate a prompt appearance.

8. Five (5) business days prior to the first conference in the Part, any party who requires the assistance of an interpreter shall notify the Part Clerk and specify the language (including specific dialect, where appropriate). The Court will exercise due diligence in its efforts to secure a necessary interpreter.
9. Adherence to the stipulated dates and directives set forth in the PC Order will be strictly enforced in accordance with the Uniform Rules. Adjournment of any date set forth in the PC Order requires the consent of the Court, with good cause shown. (see annexed Part 19 Adjournment Request Form)
10. Adjournments requested due to actual engagement of counsel on trial must be accompanied by an Affirmation of Engagement in conformity with 22 NYCRR, Part 12.
11. Adjournment requests simply left on Chamber's voicemail for the Associate Law Clerk or on the courtroom voicemail for the Court, without a corresponding Adjournment Request Form, will not be considered.
12. If there are any newly submitted or pending motion(s) at the time of a conference or trial, the Law Secretary and/or Judge must be so informed.

C. EARLY ADR Settlement Conferences

1. EARLY ADR settlement conferences will be held on Monday, unless otherwise directed by the Court.

2. Attorneys and pro se litigants shall appear for all conferences, via Microsoft Teams, unless otherwise directed by the Court.
3. All counsel (including per diem) and pro se litigants appearing on a matter shall be knowledgeable about the case and fully authorized to enter into a settlement and/or disposition, which bind their respective clients and must be prepared to enter into good faith settlement discussions with the Court.

V. MOTIONS

A. Pre-Motion Conference (Discovery):

1. All parties are directed to the Uniform Rules, including but not limited to, 202.20-f, which will be strictly enforced. Prior to making or filing any discovery motions, where no pro se litigants are involved, the parties shall be a good faith effort to resolve with a conference with all parties. Should the dispute not resolve, the parties must request a conference with the Court, prior to making any motions.
2. All discovery motions must be accompanied by an affirmation of good faith, stating compliance with the aforementioned directives and compliance with Uniform Rule 202.20-f.
3. Show Cause, unless otherwise specifically waived by the Court.
4. There shall be no submitted discovery motions in the absence of a conference.
5. Failure to Uniform Rule 202.20-f will result in denial of the motion.
6. If the matter cannot be resolved, the motion papers must state that this Rule has been fully complied with.

B. Generally

1. Discovery Motions shall be made returnable on a Wednesday.
2. Motions, other than Discovery motions, are done on submission, unless otherwise directed by the Court and may be made returnable on any date.
3. Adjournment of motions may be granted upon consent of all parties and prior express approval of the Court, together with completion of the Adjournment Request Form. Additionally, a letter confirming the adjournment shall be submitted to the Court and shall contain the full names of all parties, along with the index number, and shall specify that a motion is being adjourned. The adjournment will not be deemed granted until receipt of a confirming fax by Chambers before 4:00PM on the date the adjournment is granted. Failure to do so may result in the adjournment request being considered withdrawn, and the currently scheduled adjourn date will remain on the Court's calendar.
4. In the absence of consent of all parties, an application for adjournment of a motion must be made on the scheduled date.
5. Adjournments requested due to actual engagement of counsel on trial must be accompanied by an Affirmation of Engagement in conformity with 22 NYCRR, Part 125.
6. Adjournment requests simply left on Chamber's voicemail for Associate Law Clerk or on the courtroom voicemail for the Part Clerk, without a corresponding Adjournment Request Form, will not be considered.

7. If there are any newly submitted or pending motions at the time of a required appearance on a motion, the Law Secretary and/or Judge must be so informed by counsel.
8. Except for good cause shown, no affidavit or affirmation shall exceed twenty (20) pages (double-spaced). Papers submitted in excess of this limit may be returned to counsel.
9. All papers shall be submitted in a timely manner and no later than noon of the return date. The Court will not consider late papers absent Court approval. No sur-reply affidavit affirmation, or letter will be accepted or considered without leave of Court.
10. The Court requires a hard copy of all papers submitted through the E-file system, including affidavits of service. Such hard copies shall be submitted no later than noon of the return date.
11. In the event a matter has already been scheduled for conference, the Court may, where practicable, advance the conference date to align with the return date of the motion.
12. All motion exhibits must be clearly tabbed and single-sided. All submissions shall be fully and securely bound in accordance with the County Clerk's rules and shall have a litigation back attached thereto.
13. In addition to inclusion in the motion papers, a copy of the affidavit of service must also be provided to the Part Clerk before the submission date of the motion.

14. Proposed orders/judgments shall be submitted with all motions, as a separately bound document.
15. Proposed orders submitted for approval must include notice of settlement (on at least 10 days' notice) or a signed waiver of settlement with a copy of the proposed order and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the following: "Motion Support, Room 186, Nassau County Supreme Court, Nassau County, 100 Supreme Court Drive, Mineola, NY 11501."The proposed order shall be accompanied by a letter setting forth the date the motion was submitted, what aspects have been settled, and what issues remain to be decided.
16. Pursuant to CPLR § 3212(a), a motion for summary judgment shall be made no later than sixty (60) days after filing of the Note of Issue (NOI), except with leave of Court for good cause shown. Any physician affirmations, reports or other medical proof submitted on threshold motions shall contain the original signatures of the physician or provider. Also, see Section 202.8-a of the Uniform Rules.
17. Motions not consistent with these rules will be rejected.
18. Motions brought pursuant to CPLR §§ 3211, 3212, or 3213 shall not automatically stay disclosure.
19. Should all or part of a submitted motion settle or otherwise resolve, the Court shall be notified by letter before the return date. Such letter shall set forth the date the motion was submitted, the specific part of the motion that has been resolved, and the remaining issues to be decided. In the event the motion is resolved in its entirety, the movant shall so indicate, and take all necessary steps to withdraw the motion as soon as is practicable.

20. If a motion is resolved in whole or in part on the record, counsel shall obtain the transcript so that same could be “so-ordered.”

C. Oral Argument

1. The Court will determine, prior to submission, whether oral argument is warranted. Upon such determination, counsel for all litigants will be advised of the scheduled date for oral argument.

D. Application for a Stay or Temporary Restraining Order (TRO)

1. If an Order to Show Cause seeking any injunctive relief, including a stay or TRO is to be submitted, it must comply with Uniform Rule § 202.8-e. The movant shall first consult Chambers in order to schedule counsel’s appearance concerning Uniform Rule § 202.8-e compliance.
2. At any conference of the matter, if an Order to Show Cause seeking any injunctive relief, including a stay or TRO, has been submitted or pending, counsel shall advise the Court of the pendency of such application, the return date of such Order to Show Cause, the relief sought and whether an immediate hearing is sought.
3. Requests to continue or vacate a stay or TRO beyond the return date of the motion shall be made to the Court on said date. Unless the Order to Show Cause provides otherwise, failure to apply for such extension shall result in the automatic vacatur of the stay or TRO.

4. An “Emergency” Order to Show Cause requires a special affidavit based upon personal knowledge and an affirmation explaining in detail the nature of the emergency. In addition, the movant shall be prepared to appear in court as soon as is practicable to make a record, if the Court requires same.

VI. SETTLEMENTS

- A. No out-of-court settlement will be recognized or accepted unless counsel submits a letter, on notice to opposing counsel, along with the executed settlement agreement/stipulation, or certifying that such agreement/stipulation has, in fact, been executed.
- B. The Court shall be notified by letter fax/email of a settlement prior to the return date. A stipulation of discontinuance must follow as soon as is practicable.

VII. TRIALS

- A. A Note of Issue shall be filed within sixty (60) days after the date of certification, unless otherwise specified in the certification order. Counsel for plaintiff shall pay the requisite fee with the Office of the County Clerk and ensure that the note of issue is submitted to the Clerk, who will then assign a calendar number. Counsel shall contact the Court if the note of issue will not be timely filed.
- B. Trials will be conducted on a daily basis until conclusion, unless otherwise directed by the Court. Once trial has commenced, there will be no adjournments or delays absent exigent circumstances.

- C. All counsel and litigants are expected to be ready to proceed at 9:30 a.m.
- D. Objections during trials should be stated without argument, simply stating the ground upon which the objection is based – e.g. objection, hearsay; objection, relevance, etc. No speaking objections are permitted. If further argument is warranted, it will be invited by the Court.
- E. Trial counsel are responsible for redactions of all evidence.
- F. A formal charge conference will be conducted prior to summations. Prior thereto, informal conferences may be held.
- G. At the conclusion of the trial, trial counsel are responsible for retrieving all exhibits, pleadings, transcripts, etc., except in the case of a bench trial, where the Court reserves decision. In all cases involving non-jury trials where decision is reserved, exhibits, pleadings, transcripts, etc. shall be disposed of if they are not retrieved within thirty (30) days following the date the Court renders a decision.
- H. At the first appearance of all cases assigned to the Part for trial, a conference will be held. At the conference, counsel shall submit to the Court as follows:
 - 1. Request for Interpreter. On the first appearance in the Part, any party requiring the aid of an interpreter shall notify the Part Clerk and specify the language (including specific dialect, where appropriate).
 - 2. Proof of filing of the Note of Issue.
 - 3. Marked pleadings are to be submitted before opening statements.

4. Parties are encouraged to stipulate to facts and exhibits whenever possible.
5. A list of proposed witnesses, including name and title/identifier (e.g. John Doe, Husband or Jane Doe, doctor, etc.).
6. Expert witnesses. Each party shall, with respect to each expert witness that party intends to call, submit a list identifying with specificity any record, report, photograph, film, computer animation, x-ray, CT scan, MRI, EMG study or similar item or items to which an expert witness is expected to make reference as supporting in whole or in part the opinion he or she will offer. Where the exhibit is a multi-page document such as a hospital record, office record or voluminous (in excess of 10 pages) business record, counsel shall identify by use of tabs, Post-Its, page numbering or similar device, the particular page or pages to which reference will be made.
7. Malpractice departures. In cases involving claims of professional negligence, at the trial session immediately following an expert's testimony, or such other time as the Court may direct, plaintiff shall furnish the Court and counsel for all parties a list of the departures from the standards of good and accepted practice which that party asserts were testified to by its expert witness(es). Where the testimony has been transcribed, page references will be required.
8. Pre-trial memoranda including cited case law if any, that counsel seeks to be considered by the Court.
9. All in limine applications, including any supporting statutory or case law, shall be submitted to the Court in writing. Absent extraordinary circumstances, all motions in limine addressing the preclusion of evidence, testimony or other trial-related matters must be brought to the attention of the Court immediately upon counsel becoming aware of such matter to be addressed, in order to avoid applications on the eve of or during trial. The moving party shall furnish the Court with an original and two (2) copies and provide counsel for all parties with a copy. There shall be a separate affirmation for each motion in limine.

10. The Court is to be provided a copy of any deposition transcript prior to the commencement of opening statements, should it be intended for use at trial.
11. All trial exhibits, whether or not the parties stipulate to their admission into evidence, shall be pre-marked by the court reporter. As to those exhibits marked for identification, the Court will address their admissibility in limine or during the trial, as may be appropriate. A courtesy copy of each exhibit intended to be introduced into evidence shall be provided to the Court.
12. Requests to Charge and Verdict Sheets. Each party shall provide the Court with preliminary requests to charge and proposed verdict sheets. Charges from the Pattern Jury Instructions (PJI) may be identified by number without necessity of reproduction, unless a modification of the standard charge is requested, in which case the modification is to be highlighted. Each party shall supply an original and three (3) copies to the Court and furnish every other party with a copy. The preliminary requests may be supplemented, modified or edited during the course of the trial.

13. Equipment. On the first appearance in the Part for trial, any party who intends to rely upon the Court to supply electronic, audio-visual, Skype, or other technological assistance, or utilize demonstrative evidence, etc., shall make the request to the Part Clerk.
14. Nassau County Police Officers. On the first appearance in the Part for trial, any party who has issued a subpoena to secure the appearance of a police officer shall notify the Part Clerk in order that the Clerk may facilitate the officer's appearance through police liaison.

VIII. Virtual Trials

- A. Until further notice and unless otherwise directed by the Court, all trials shall be conducted virtually. Please refer to this part's Virtual Trials Instructions and Guidelines (see annexed Part 19 Virtual Trials Instructions and Guidelines).

IX. EXPEDITED JURY TRIALS (also known as Summary Jury Trials)

- A. Trials having prior approval to proceed as Expedited Jury Trials shall abide by the following:
 1. All counsel and litigants are expected to be ready to proceed at 9:30 a.m.
 2. Any party requiring the aid of an interpreter shall notify the Part Clerk at least five (5) days prior to the trial date in order for the Court to make a timely accommodation of the request.

3. All verdicts are final. There are no appeals, no motions, and no further trial proceedings following the verdict.
4. Neither party shall enter judgment on the verdict.
5. There shall be no bifurcation. If the issue of the negligence of the defendant(s) is not conceded, all issues shall be determined in a full trial.
6. The parties may, if necessary, request one pre-trial conference to discuss admissibility of trial documents / exhibits. Upon such request, the Court may assign the conference to a court referee.
7. In any event, any in limine applications are to be made once the issue arises, and to the extent practicable, no later than the Friday preceding the scheduled trial date.
8. Prior to trial, the parties shall each prepare a trial exhibit book. The books shall include any documents each party wishes the jury to review during deliberations. Each party shall present their book to the adversary prior to jury selection. Any objections to proposed exhibits contained therein shall be made to the Court prior to commencement of trial and prior to jury selection. The books shall be provided to the jury prior to the commencement of summations. Any documents found inadmissible by the Court shall be removed prior to the distribution of the books to the jury.
9. Trial exhibit books shall be delivered to the Part Clerk in the courtroom or the Chambers no later than the Friday preceding the date of the trial.
10. Proposed verdict sheets and requests to charge shall be provided to the Court by the Friday preceding the date of trial, via email in Word format to stinis@nycourts.gov.

11. Any party who intends to rely upon the Court to supply electronic, audio-visual, Skype, or other technological assistance, or utilize demonstrative evidence, etc., shall make the request to the Court at least five (5) business days prior to the date of the trial.
12. Jury selection shall commence on the morning of trial and be completed within ninety (90) minutes of commencement, subject to application to the Court for additional time prior to commencement of selection.
13. Each side shall have three (3) peremptory challenges.
14. The parties will be allocuted prior to the commencement of trial to ensure their understanding of their right to a full trial and that they are knowingly and voluntarily waiving that right to proceed with an expedited trial.
15. If a verdict is not reached by 4:30 p.m., jury deliberations shall be adjourned to the following business day.

X. SANCTIONS

- A. The Court will not consider an application for sanctions unless the moving party first seeks withdrawal or discontinuation of the offending act or action or demands required or necessary action which is refused. Proof of such request must be made a part of the sanctions application.

XI. CONCLUSION

- A. We look forward to working with you.
