

QUEENS SUPREME COURT - CIVIL TERM

NON-COMPLIANCE PART

{In-Person Appearance Required}

Effective August 14, 2023, and until further notice, cases wherein the parties have not fully complied with the directives set forth in Compliance Conference Orders dated prior to February 7, 2022, will be conferenced in the Non-Compliance Part. The parties who appear for a conference in the Non-Compliance Part are expected to enter into a stipulation resolving any discovery dispute(s) and/or outstanding discovery. The stipulation will be So Ordered and e-filed by the court.

The calendar will be held each Monday, in courtroom 314. There will be three (3) separate calendar calls at 9:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m., and 2:15 p.m. Each calendar will be presided over by a Judge and/or a Court Attorney-Referee. The Court Attorney-Referee will have the authority to So Order stipulations entered into by the parties.

Attorneys and self-represented litigants MUST APPEAR IN-PERSON. The conferences will not be held virtually.

Parties on cases scheduled for a conference in the Non-Compliance Part will be notified of the date and time of the conference, in advance of the scheduled conference, through eCourts.

Please refer to the Non-Compliance Part rules for more information.
