

Heather A. La Forme

Heather A. La Forme is the Native American Affairs Specialist for the Office of Native American Services. Heather serves as an OCFS liaison to the nine American Indian Nations in New York State. In this role she provides technical support and assistance to determine their needs and meet legal obligations in accordance with treaties, law and contracts, Heather is a member of the Onondaga Nation, Beaver Clan and is an enrolled tribal member of the Mississauga's of the New Credit (Ojibwa) First Nation band located in Hagersville, Ontario Canada.

Heather is a 2020 fellow of the Minority Professional Leadership Development Program with AdoptUSKids. Heather received her Bachelor of Criminal Justice (2009) and Master of Public Administration (2019) from SUNY College at Buffalo.