

Michaela K. Rossettie Azemi

Michaela Rossettie Azemi, Esq. is the Director of Pro Bono Services and Externships at Cornell Law School. She is responsible for the development and oversight of Cornell's Pro Bono Program which includes managing the NY State Pro Bono Scholars program, working with current students seeking NY State Admission to achieve the requisite 50-hours of pro bono service, and highlighting pro bono opportunities and achievements of law school alumni. Ms. Azemi also manages Cornell's Externship Program, overseeing student experiential learning off-site, coordinating with placement organizations and agencies, and teaching a required externship course for second- and third-year students.

Ms. Azemi previously served as the Associate Director in the Office of Judicial Engagement and Professional Development at Cornell Law School and as both a Staff Attorney and Coordinator of Pro Bono Services for Legal Assistance of Western New York, Inc. (LawNY®). Ms. Azemi received her B.A. in Sociology and Women's Studies from the University of Delaware in 2009 and her J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law in 2012 and was admitted to practice in 2013.