STANDARD WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

TO CLIENTS FOR THE RESOLUTION OF FEE DISPUTES PURSUANT TO PART 137 OF THE RULES OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR

Part 137 of the Rules of the Chief Administrator of the Courts provides a procedure for the arbitration (and in some cases mediation) of fee disputes between attorneys and clients in civil matters. Your attorney can provide you with a copy of Part 137 upon request or you can download a copy at www.nycourts.gov/feedispute. Fee disputes may involve both fees that you have already paid to your attorney and fees that your attorney claims are owed by you. If you elect to resolve your dispute by arbitration, your attorney is required to participate. Furthermore, the arbitration will be final and binding on both your attorney and you, unless either of you seeks a trial de novo within 30 days, which means either of you reject the arbitrator's decision by commencing an action on the merits of the fee dispute in a court of law within 30 days after the arbitrator's decision has been mailed. Fees disputes which may not be resolved under this procedure are described in Part 137.1 of the Rules of Chief Administrator of the Courts: representation in criminal matters; amounts in dispute involving a sum of less than $1,000 or more than $50,000 unless the parties consent; and claims involving substantial legal questions, including professional malpractice or misconduct. Please consult Part 137.1 for additional exclusions.

Your attorney may not bring an action in court to obtain payment of a fee unless he or she first has provided written notice to you of your right to elect to resolve the dispute by arbitration under Part 137. If your attorney provides you with this notice, he or she must provide you with a copy of the written instructions and procedures of the approved local bar association-sponsored fee dispute resolution program ("Local Program") having jurisdiction over your dispute. Your attorney must also provide you with the "Request for Fee Arbitration" form and advise that you must file the Request for Fee Arbitration with the local program within 30 days of the receipt of the notice. If you do not file the Request within those 30 days, you will not be permitted to compel your attorney to resolve the dispute by arbitration, and your attorney will be free to bring a lawsuit in court to seek to obtain payment of the fee.

In order to elect to resolve a fee dispute by arbitration, you must file the attached “Request for Fee Arbitration” with the approved local program. An updated list of local programs is available at www.nycourts.gov/feedispute or by calling toll-free 1-(877)-FEES-137 (1-877-333-7137). Filing of the Request for Fee Arbitration must be made with the appropriate local program for the county in which the majority of legal services were performed. Once you file the Request for Fee Arbitration, the local program will mail a copy of the request to your attorney, who must provide a response within 15 days of the mailing. You will receive at least 15 days notice in writing of the time and place of the hearing and of the identity of the arbitrator(s). The arbitrator(s) will issue a decision no later than 30 days after the date of the hearing. You may represent yourself at the hearing, or you may appear with an attorney if you wish.

Some local programs may offer mediation services in addition to arbitration. Mediation is a process by which those who have a fee dispute meet with the assistance of a trained mediator to clarify issues and explore options for a mutually acceptable resolution. Mediation provides the opportunity for your attorney and you to discuss your concerns without relinquishing control over the outcome and of achieving a result satisfactory to both of you. Participation in mediation is voluntary for your attorney and you, and it does not waive any of your rights to arbitration under these rules. If you wish to attempt to resolve your dispute through mediation, you may indicate your wish on the Request for Fee Arbitration form.

The cost for such personal service may be added to the award of the Arbitrator(s), if previously paid by the prevailing party, at the discretion of the Arbitrator(s), to the extent authorized by law.

H. (1) Arbitration under this Program shall be voluntary for the client unless:

(a). The client has previously consented in writing to submit fee disputes to fee dispute arbitration pursuant to Part 137 by prior written agreement between the attorney and client. To be valid on the part of the client, such consent must be knowing and informed. The client's consent shall be stated in a retainer agreement or other writing specifying that the client has read pursuant to Part 137, the Fourth District's approved Rules and Procedures and that the client consents to resolve fee disputes pursuant to the Program; or

(b). The attorney and client have consented in advance to submit fee disputes to arbitration that is final and binding and not subject to a trial de novo. To be valid on the part of the client, such consent must be knowing and informed and obtained in the same manner as set forth in the previous subsection of this section, except that the retainer agreement or other writing shall also state that the client understands that he/she is waiving the right to reject an arbitration award and subsequently commence a trial de novo in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Where an agreement to arbitrate exists between the attorney and client under either subsections (H)(1)(a) or (b) of this section, those provisions of Section 137.6(a) (1) and (b) of Part 137 relating to the notice of client's right to arbitrate shall not apply and no further notice of the right to arbitrate shall be required. (3) The attorney and client may consent in advance to final and binding arbitration in an arbitral forum other than the one created under Part 137. To be valid on the part of the client, such consent must be knowing and informed and must be obtained in a retainer agreement or other writing. Arbitration in an arbitral forum outside Part 137 shall be governed by the rules and procedures of that forum. The Board may maintain information concerning other established arbitral programs and shall provide contact information for such programs upon request.

In those instances, the District Office shall provide the client with information about the Program.

I. Upon notice of appointment, the Arbitrator or Chairperson of the panel of arbitrators, as the case may be, may contact both parties to make an effort to settle the dispute, however, the Arbitrator or Chairperson is not authorized to provide legal advice to any of the parties involved.

SECTION 4 - ARBITRATORS

A. The District Office, with assistance from the Federation of Bar Associations of the Fourth Judicial District (the "Federated Bar"), shall maintain a sufficient number of Arbitrators in order to meet the Program's caseload. Attorneys and non-attorneys shall serve as Arbitrators. The Federated Bar shall recruit Arbitrators and, in so doing, shall endeavor to recruit Arbitrators representing a wide range of law practices and a diversity of non-attorney professions and occupations, representing a cross-section of the communities. Non-attorney Arbitrators will be recruited by contacting established Alternative Dispute Resolution programs throughout the District, as well as the Unified Court System, Office of Alternative Dispute Resolution Programs. The Federated Bar shall organize and conduct arbitrator training programs throughout the District.

B. Arbitrators shall complete a minimum of six hours of fee dispute arbitration training approved by the Board. However, the Board may take previous arbitration training and experience under consideration in determining whether the foregoing training requirement has been met. In any case, all Arbitrators must complete a short orientation program designed to introduce them to Part 137 and to these Rules and Procedures. Arbitrators may be required to undergo periodic refresher courses.

- (b) be fluent in speaking, reading and writing English; and
- (c) have completed an arbitration training program sponsored by the Federated Bar or the equivalent.

D. The number of Arbitrators assigned to hear a fee dispute matter under this Program shall depend upon the amount in dispute as follows:

- (1) disputes involving a sum of less than $10,000.00 shall be submitted to one attorney Arbitrator; and
- (2) disputes involving a sum of $10,000.00 or greater shall be submitted to a panel of three Arbitrators, which shall include at least one attorney and one non-attorney member of the public; the Chairperson of all panels shall be an attorney and all decisions on the merits shall be decided by majority rule.

E. Lists of attorney Arbitrators may be maintained under the following headings: matrimonial, litigation, real estate, business and any other. Attorney Arbitrators will self-identify themselves as being within one or more of these areas and where practical, matters will be assigned to Arbitrators in order of placement on the respective lists, should there be a conflict of interest pursuant to subsection H of this section requiring the Arbitrator to be recused, the Arbitrator will remain at the top of the list of for appointment in the next matter to be assigned.

F. Prospective Arbitrators shall submit a summary of credentials to the District Office which shall be kept on record.

G. All Arbitrators must sign a written oath or affirmation to faithfully and fairly arbitrate all disputes that come before them, which written oath or affirmation shall be kept on file at the District Office.

H. All Arbitrators must conduct a conflict of interest check within 3 business days after initial contact by the District Office and prior to accepting a case. A person who has any personal bias regarding a party or the subject matter of a dispute, a financial interest in the subject matter of the dispute, or a close personal relationship or financial relationship with a party to the dispute shall not serve as an Arbitrator. An Arbitrator shall disclose any information that he or she has reason to believe may provide a basis for recusal.

I. Arbitrators shall serve as volunteers. However, Continuing Legal Education ("CLE") credits may be awarded for training and/or service as an Arbitrator, subject to the rules and standards of the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board.

J. In making an award, Arbitrators shall specify in a concise statement, the amount of and basis for the award.

K. Arbitrators have a duty to maintain the confidentiality of all proceedings, hearings and communications, including all papers pertaining to the arbitration conducted in accordance with Part 137 and these Rules and Procedures, except to the extent necessary in connection with ancillary legal action with respect to a fee matter. Arbitrators should refer all requests for information concerning a fee dispute to the District Office. Arbitrators shall not be competent to testify in a subsequent proceeding or trial de novo.

SECTION 5 - THE FEE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS

A. Except as set forth in Section 3(H) above, where an attorney and client cannot agree as to the attorney's fee or where the attorney seeks to commence an action against the client for attorney's fees, the attorney shall serve a written notice to the client, entitled "Notice of Client's Right to Arbitrate," by certified mail or personal service. The notice shall:

- (1) be in a form approved by the Board of Governors;
- (2) contain a statement of the client's right to arbitrate;
- (3) advise that the client has 30 days from receipt of the notice in which to elect to resolve the fee dispute under this Part;
- (4) be accompanied by a copy of these Rules and Procedures;
- (5) be accompanied by a copy of the Written Instructions; and
- (6) be accompanied by a copy of the Petition form necessary to commence the arbitration proceeding.

B. If the attorney serves a Notice of the Client's Right to Arbitrate as described in subsection A of this section and the client does not file a Petition with the District Office within 30 days after the Notice was received or served, the attorney may commence an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover the fee and the client no longer shall have the right to request arbitration pursuant to Part 137 with respect to the fee dispute at issue.

NOTE: An attorney who institutes an action to recover a fee must allege in the complaint: (i) that the client received notice under Part 137 of the client's right to pursue arbitration and did not file a timely Request for Arbitration; or (ii) that the dispute is not otherwise covered by Part 137.

C. If, in the alternative event the client elects to pursue arbitration on his or her own initiative, the client may contact either the District Office at 518-285-5099 or the attorney with whom the client has the dispute. In the case of the latter, the attorney shall be under an obligation to refer the client to the District Office. Upon request, the District Office shall forward the Petition to the client by mail.

D. The Petitioner shall file his or her Petition with the District Office by mailing it to the following address:

District Administrative Judge's Office
Fourth Judicial District
101 State Farm Place, Suite 100
Malta, New York 12020

(1) Upon receipt of the Petition, the District Office shall assign a filing number to the matter.

(2) The District Office may contact the Petitioner and request additional facts and circumstances supporting the Petition to insure that this is a matter within the jurisdiction of the Program. If it is determined that this is a matter not within the jurisdiction of the Program, the Administrative Judge shall inform the Petitioner.

(3) If it is determined that this matter is a matter within the jurisdiction of the Program, the District Office shall mail, by certified mail, a copy of the Petition to the Respondent together with an answer form to be completed by the Respondent and returned to the District Office within 15 business days of mailing of the Petition. If service cannot be made by certified mail and personal service becomes necessary, the Petitioner will be so informed and the Petitioner will be required to pay the expense of such service in advance by cashier's check or money order, made payable to the entity making such service, as designated by the District Office. The cost for such personal service may be added to the award of the Arbitrator(s), if previously paid by the prevailing party, at the discretion of the Arbitrator(s), to the extent authorized by law.

(4) The Respondent shall return his or her Answer to the District Office, together with a signed, written statement (certification) stating that a copy of the Answer was served upon the Petitioner.

(5) Once the Answer and certification have been received or, if 15 business days have elapsed since the service of the Petition and answer form without any response from the Respondent, the District Office shall designate the Arbitrator(s) who will hear the dispute and shall expeditiously schedule a hearing.

(6) At least 15 days prior to the date of the hearing, the District Office shall notify the parties in writing of the date, time and place of the hearing and of the identity of the Arbitrator(s). Any subsequent rescheduling will be a matter between the parties and the Arbitrator(s) at the discretion of the Arbitrator(s).

(7) Either party may request the removal of an Arbitrator based upon the Arbitrator's personal or professional relationship to a party or party's counsel. A request for removal must be made to the District Office no later than 5 days prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. The District Office shall have the final decision concerning the removal of an Arbitrator.

(8) The Petitioner may not withdraw from the process once an Answer has been submitted. If the Petitioner seeks to withdraw at anytime thereafter, the arbitration will proceed as scheduled whether or not the Petitioner appears, and a decision will be made on the basis of the evidence presented.

(9) If the Respondent, without good cause, fails to respond to a petition or otherwise does not participate in the arbitration, the arbitration will proceed as scheduled and a decision will be made on the basis of the evidence presented.

(10) Any party may participate in the arbitration hearing without a personal appearance by submitting to the Arbitrator(s) testimony and exhibits by written declaration under penalty of perjury.

(11) Arbitrators shall have the power to:

(a) compel, by subpoena, the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and documents pertaining to the proceeding;

(b) administer oaths and affirmations; and

(c) take and hear evidence pertaining to the proceeding.

(12) The rules of evidence need not be observed at the hearing.

(13) Either party, at his or her own expense, may be represented by counsel.

(14) The burden shall be on the attorney to prove the reasonableness of the fee by a preponderance of the evidence and to present documentation of the work performed and the billing history. The client may then present his or her account of the services rendered and time expended. Witnesses may be called by the parties. The attorney shall have the right of reply. The client shall have the right of final reply.

(15) Where there is more than one Arbitrator, any disputes arising among them shall be decided by the Chairperson, consistent with Part 137 of the Rules of the Chief Administrator and the minimum Standards and Guidelines of the Board of Governors.

(16) Any party may provide for a stenographic or other record at that party's expense. The other party to the arbitration shall be entitled to a copy of said record upon written request and payment of the expense of duplication.

(17) Arbitration awards shall be in writing and shall state the amount and basis for the award. The Arbitrator or Chairperson of the Panel of Arbitrators, as the case may be, shall issue the Notice of Arbitration Award by mailing a copy to each party (or their counsel, if represented) and by mailing the original to the District Office no later than 30 days after the date of the hearing. If de novo review has been waived as set forth in subdivision (H)(1)(b) of section 3 of these Rules and Procedures, then the arbitration award shall be final and binding.

SECTION 6 - DENOVOREVIEW

If de novo review has not been previously waived in writing, either party may seek de novo review of the arbitration award by commencing an action on the merits in any court of competent jurisdiction within thirty (30) days after the Notice of Arbitration Award has been mailed. Notice of commencement of such an action shall be provided to the District Office.

If no action is commenced within thirty (30) days of the mailing of the Notice of Arbitration Award, the award shall become final and binding. Any party who fails to participate in the hearing shall not be entitled to seek de novo review absent good cause shown for such failure to participate. Arbitrators may not be called as witnesses nor shall the arbitration award be admitted in evidence at the trial de novo.
