STANDARD WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS AND PROCEDURES TO CLIENTS FOR THE RESOLUTION OF FEE DISPUTES PURSUANT TO PART 137 OF THE RULES OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR

Part 137 of the Rules of the Chief Administrator of the Courts provides a procedure for the arbitration (and in some cases mediation) of fee disputes between attorneys and clients in civil matters. Your attorney can provide you with a copy of Part 137 upon request or you can download a copy at www.nycourts.gov/feedispute. Fee disputes may involve both fees that you have already paid to your attorney and fees that your attorney claims are owed by you. If you elect to resolve your dispute by arbitration, your attorney is required to participate. Furthermore, the arbitration will be final and binding on both your attorney and you, unless either of you seeks a trial de novo within 30 days, which means either of you reject the arbitrator's decision by commencing an action on the merits of the fee dispute in a court of law within 30 days after the arbitrator's decision has been mailed. Fees disputes which may not be resolved under this procedure are described in Part 137.1 of the Rules of Chief Administrator of the Courts: representation in criminal matters; amounts in dispute involving a sum of less than $1,000 or more than $50,000 unless the parties consent; and claims involving substantial legal questions, including professional malpractice or misconduct. Please consult Part 137.1 for additional exclusions.

Your attorney may not bring an action in court to obtain payment of a fee unless he or she first has provided written notice to you of your right to elect to resolve the dispute by arbitration under Part 137. If your attorney provides you with this notice, he or she must provide you with a copy of the written instructions and procedures of the approved local bar association-sponsored fee dispute resolution program ("Local Program") having jurisdiction over your dispute. Your attorney must also provide you with the "Request for Fee Arbitration" form and advise that you must file the Request for Fee Arbitration with the local program within 30 days of the receipt of the notice. If you do not file the Request within those 30 days, you will not be permitted to compel your attorney to resolve the dispute by arbitration, and your attorney will be free to bring a lawsuit in court to seek to obtain payment of the fee.

In order to elect to resolve a fee dispute by arbitration, you must file the attached "Request for Fee Arbitration" with the approved local program. An updated list of local programs is available at www.nycourts.gov/feedispute or by calling toll-free 1-(877)-FEES-137 (1-877-333-7137). Filing of the Request for Fee Arbitration must be made with the appropriate local program for the county in which the majority of legal services were performed. Once you file the Request for Fee Arbitration, the local program will mail a copy of the request to your attorney, who must provide a response within 15 days of the mailing. You will receive at least 15 days notice in writing of the time and place of the hearing and of the identity of the arbitrator(s). The arbitrator(s) will issue a decision no later than 30 days after the date of the hearing. You may represent yourself at the hearing, or you may appear with an attorney if you wish.

Some local programs may offer mediation services in addition to arbitration. Mediation is a process by which those who have a fee dispute meet with the assistance of a trained mediator to clarify issues and explore options for a mutually acceptable resolution. Mediation provides the opportunity for your attorney and you to discuss your concerns without relinquishing control over the outcome and of achieving a result satisfactory to both of you. Participation in mediation is voluntary for your attorney and you, and it does not waive any of your rights to arbitration under these rules. If you wish to attempt to resolve your dispute through mediation, you may indicate your wish on the Request for Fee Arbitration form.

STANDARD WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS AND PROCEDURES TO CLIENTS FOR RESOLUTION OF FEE DISPUTES PURSUANT TO PART 137 OF THE RULES OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR WHERE THERE IS A PRIOR WRITTEN AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE

Part 137 of the Rules of the Chief Administrator of the Courts provides arbitration (and in some cases mediation) of fee disputes between attorneys and clients in civil matters. Your attorney can give you with a copy of Part 137 upon request or you can download a copy at www.nycourts.gov/feedispute. Arbitration is where a neutral person called an "arbitrator" hears arguments and evidence from each side and then decides the outcome. It is less formal than a trial and the rules of evidence are relaxed. Fee disputes may involve both fees that you have already paid to your attorney and fees that your attorney claims are owed by you.

If you agreed in advance to submit any fee disputes to Part 137 arbitration, both your attorney and you are required to participate. Furthermore, the arbitration will be final and binding on both your attorney and you (i) if you have consented in advance that the arbitration is final and binding and not subject to a trial de novo; or (ii) even if you did not agree in advance, but neither of you seeks a trial de novo within 30 days.

A request for a trial de novo means you or your attorney rejects the arbitration decision. Rejection requires a party to commence an action on the merits of the fee dispute in a court, within 30 days after the arbitration decision has been mailed to the parties.

Some fee disputes may not be resolved under Part 137. These are described in Part 137.1 of the Rules of the Chief Administrator of the Courts: representation in criminal matters; amounts in dispute involving a sum of less than $1,000 or more than $50,000, unless the parties consent; and claims involving substantial legal questions, including professional malpractice or misconduct. Please consult Part 137.1 for additional exclusions.

Either party may start the dispute resolution process by filing the attached Request for Fee Arbitration form, and a copy of the parties' agreement to arbitrate, with the appropriate local program designated to hear fee disputes between attorneys and clients in your area. An updated list of local programs is available at <http://www.nycourts.gov/feedispute> or by calling toll-free 1-(877)-FEES-137 (1-877-333-7137).

Filing of the Request for Fee Arbitration must be made with the local program for the county in which the majority of legal services were performed. If you file the Request for Fee Arbitration, the local program will mail a copy of the request to your attorney, who must provide a response within 15 days of mailing. If the attorney files the Request for Arbitration, the local program will mail a copy of the request to you. The attorney and you will receive at least 15 days' notice in writing of the time and place of the hearing and of the identity of the arbitrator(s). The arbitrator(s) will issue a decision no later than 30 days after the date of the hearing. You may represent yourself at the hearing, or you may appear with an attorney if you wish.

Some local programs may offer mediation services in addition to arbitration. Mediation is a process by which those who have a fee dispute meet with the assistance of a trained mediator to clarify issues and explore options for a mutually acceptable resolution. Participation in mediation is voluntary and does not waive any of your rights to arbitration under these rules. If you wish to attempt to resolve your dispute through mediation, you may indicate your wish on the Request for Fee Arbitration form.

the Courts of Nassau County within 15 days of the aforesaid mailing of the Petition to the Respondent. If service cannot be made by certified mail and personal service becomes necessary, the Petitioner will be so informed and the Petitioner will be required to pay the expense of such service. The cost for such personal service may be added to the Arbitrator(s) award, if previously paid by the prevailing party, at the discretion of the Arbitrators, to the extent authorized by law.

4. The Respondent shall return its Answer to the Office of the Courts of Nassau County, together with a signed, written statement (certification) stating that a copy of the Answer was served upon the Petitioner.
5. Once the Answer and certification have been received or, if 15 business days have elapsed since the service of the Petition and answer form without any response from the Respondent, the Office of the Courts of Nassau County shall designate the Arbitrator(s) who will hear the dispute and shall expeditiously schedule a hearing.
6. At least 15 days prior to the date of the hearing, the Office of the Courts of Nassau County shall notify the parties in writing of the date, time and place of the hearing and of the identify of the Arbitrator(s). Any subsequent rescheduling will be a matter between the parties and the Arbitrator(s) at the discretion of the Arbitrator(s) in accordance with subsection 11(d) of this section.
7. Either party may request the removal of an Arbitrator based upon the Arbitrator's personal or professional relationship to a party or party's counsel. A request for removal must be made to the Office of the Courts of Nassau County no later than 5 business days prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. The Office of the Courts of Nassau County shall have the final decision concerning the removal of an Arbitrator.
8. The Petitioner may not withdraw from the process once an Answer has been submitted. If the Petitioner seeks to withdraw at anytime thereafter, the arbitration will proceed as scheduled whether or not the Petitioner appears, and a decision will be made on the basis of the evidence presented.
9. If the Respondent, without good cause, fails to respond to a petition or otherwise does not participate in the arbitration, the arbitration will proceed as scheduled and a decision will be made on the basis of the evidence presented.

12. The Rules of Evidence need not be observed at the hearing.
13. Either party, at its own expense, may be represented by counsel.
14. The burden shall be on the attorney to prove the reasonableness of the fee by a preponderance of the evidence and to present documentation of the work performed and the billing history. The client may then present his or her account of the services rendered and time expended. Witnesses may be called by the parties. The attorney shall have the right to reply. The client shall have the right of final reply.
15. Where there is more than one (1) Arbitrator, any disputes arising among them shall be decided by the Chairperson, consistent with 22 NYCRR Part 137 of the Rules of the Chief Administrator and the minimum Standards and Guidelines of the Board of Governors of the New York State Fee Dispute Resolution Program.
16. Any party may provide for a stenographic or other record at the party's expense. The other party to the arbitration shall be entitled to a copy of said record upon written request and payment of the expense of duplication. The parties to the arbitration must stipulate at least five (5) days prior to the hearing as to what kind of record will constitute a true and authentic record of the proceeding.
17. The arbitration award shall be issued by mail with a copy forwarded to the Office of the Courts of the County of Nassau no later than 30 days after the date of the hearing. Arbitration awards shall be in writing and shall state the amount and basis for the award. If de novo review has been waived pursuant to Section 3.H(b) of these Rules and Procedures, then the arbitration award shall be final and binding.

SECTION 7 - DE NOVO REVIEW

If de novo review has not been previously waived in writing, either party may seek de novo review of the arbitration award by commencing an action on the merits in any court of competent jurisdiction within thirty (30) days after the Notice of Arbitration Award has been mailed. Notice of commencement of such an action shall be provided to the Office of the Courts of Nassau County. If no action is commenced within thirty (30) days of the mailing of the Notice of Arbitration Award, the award shall become final and binding. Any party who fails to participate in the hearing shall not be entitled to seek de novo review absent good cause shown for such failure to participate. Arbitrators may not be called as witnesses nor shall the arbitration award be admitted in evidence at the trial de novo.

SECTION 8 - NOTICES

Except as otherwise stated herein, all notices, correspondence and papers necessary and proper for the arbitration proceeding under this Program and for the entry of judgment of any arbitration award may be served upon any party by regular mail addressed to that party at that party's last known address or the party's counsel of record.
