DFM Bulletin	Number 1801	January 1, 2018
---------------------	--------------------	------------------------

TO: Holders of the Financial Planning and Control Manual

SUBJECT: Compensation Rate Guidelines for Court-Appointed Non-lawyer Professionals

 This supersedes DFM Bulletin number 1001, issued January 14, 2010.*

The hourly rates of compensation to be paid to non-lawyer professionals appointed pursuant to section 35 of the Judiciary Law are as follow:

Profession	Hourly Rate
Psychiatrist/Physicians	$250
Certified Psychologist	$150
Certified Social Worker	$75
Licensed Investigator	$55

The rates are subject to statutory maximums for total compensation. The maximum compensation remains unchanged.

Subject to an order of the Administrative Board of the Courts, the compensation rate for psychiatric examiners appointed by the court pursuant to the Sex Offender Management Treatment Act (Mental Hygiene Law, Art 10) is $250 per hour, except that travel shall be reimbursed at $100 per hour.

The hourly rates are subject to a maximum compensation of $10,000 for appointment, in accordance with the following schedule:

Work Performed	Maximum Compensation
Evaluation and Review	$4,500
Testimony and preparation - Probable Cause Hearing	$1,000
Testimony and preparation - Trial	$3,000
Testimony and preparation - Other Hearings (disposition, retention)	$1,500

All maximum compensation amounts included in this bulletin may be exceeded upon the specific authorization of the court for good cause shown.

Please ensure full distribution of this bulletin to all judges, justices and nonjudicial staff who are involved with the assignment of court-appointed counsel and non-lawyer professionals.
