Children’s Single Point of Access (C-SPOA)

The Children’s Single Point of Access system began in 2001 to simplify and coordinate the process of linking children with serious emotional disturbance and their families to the services that can assist in meeting their needs. The goal of SPOA is to identify children at highest risk of placement in out-of-home settings; develop appropriate strategies to manage those children in their home communities; and monitor and track progress through system. The Children’s SPOA is characterized by a multi-disciplinary representation of agencies. Referrals may be made to SPOA for children, age five through 18 years, with a major psychiatric diagnosis who meet the NYS OMH criteria for Serious Emotional Disturbance (SED).

Supportive Case Management (SCM), Intensive Case Management (ICM) & Non-Medicaid Care Coordination/Intensive Case Management (NMCC/ICM)

All develop service plans based on the specific needs and desires of the child and the family. Programs provide care coordination services, including service linkage, coordination and monitoring and crisis intervention to maximize each youth’s potential for growth and emotional stability within their natural support system and maintain the youth in their home and community. The ICM and NMCC/ICM sees the child and/or family a minimum of four visits per month, while the SCM maintains a minimum of two visits per month.

FREE/LOW-COST MEDICATION

Bureau of Prescription Health.....573-996-7300

The Medicine Program assists patients who cannot afford to pay for prescription medication. This program is used when a consumer is unable to pay for medications, pending Medicaid approval. There are also some pharmaceutical companies that offer free medications to low-income families. They require a doctor's consent and proof of your financial status. Depending on what your insurance covers, you may be able to apply. A few companies allow family incomes as high as $40,000 annually (offset by expenses). For a listing of current pharmaceutical companies and the medications they offer visit www.nami.org

Central American Refugee Center (CARECEN)

2000 Brentwood Road, Second Floor
Brentwood, New York 11717
631-273-8721
<http://www.carecenny.org/>

CARECEN has provided high quality legal assistance to immigrant communities in Nassau and Suffolk counties for over thirty years. We currently offer a variety of legal services in both affirmative and defensive cases, including initial and renewal requests for temporary protected status (TPS) and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), green card renewals, naturalization, adjustment of status, family petitions, unlawful presence waivers, special immigrant juvenile status (SIJS), among others. We screen for a broad range of legal relief when we meet with our clients and inform them of the immigration benefits they are eligible to apply for and the implications of applying for them.

Pathway to Citizenship Long Island: This program provides free citizenship legal services, credentialing of foreign-earned degrees and free financial counseling for lawful permanent residents.

Refugee Child Unit: This unit conducts legal outreach and intake for unaccompanied children that have resettled in Nassau and Suffolk counties, assessing avenues of legal relief and representation for children that are currently in deportation proceedings.

Family Petitions: As a permanent resident or U.S. citizen, you are able to petition for eligible relatives to become lawful permanent residents in the United States.

Adjustment of Status: This is a process by which an eligible applicant can apply to become a permanent resident of the United States.

Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA): DACA is a program through which individuals who arrived to the U.S. before their 16th birthday and meet other eligibility requirements may apply for work authorization, in addition to not being placed in deportation proceedings or removed from the U.S. for a period of two years.

Temporary Protected Status: Temporary Protected Status is granted to individuals that are a national of a country designated for TPS or individuals without nationality who last habitually resided in the designated country and who meet other eligibility requirements.

Catholic Charities - Immigration and Refugee Resettlement

Amityville, NY 11701
Telephone: 631-789-5210

Legal Counseling: Comprehensive, reliable legal counseling is the backbone of our immigrant services, helping newcomers negotiate complex and ever-changing immigration and naturalization laws. Catholic Charities is the only agency on Long Island fully recognized by the U.S. government (Board of Immigration Appeals) to offer legal advice, process petitions, and represent clients on immigration law matters up to the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), U.S. Department of Justice, Board of Immigration Appeals.

Refugee Resettlement: In partnership with the U.S. government, the U.S. Catholic Bishops, and New York State, refugee resettlement staff reach out to people who arrive on Long Island fleeing war, natural disaster, or personal persecution in their countries of origin. Full-range case management services help these most vulnerable of newcomers to stabilize their lives by securing food, clothing, housing, health care, English language instruction, and employment services. Some transitional cash assistance is available. Counseling and referral are available for those facing post-traumatic stress, displacement shock, or other anxieties. Resettlement and legal services are also available to victims of human trafficking.

Advocacy and Organizing: Advocacy and organizing are coordinated to address laws, policies, and practices that are unfair and inhumane toward immigrants. Many immigrants - including increasing numbers of legal, long-standing, and elderly immigrants - find the system unresponsive when they seek emergency services and benefits to which they are entitled, such as Medicaid or food stamps. Advocacy helps cut through the red tape on a case-by-case basis. Working with the U.S. Bishops, broad-based community organizing efforts unite the voices of immigrants seeking systemic changes to improve immigration laws and access to public benefits. Vigorous voter registration is central to the empowered participation of immigrants and their families.

Eligibility and Fees: Any immigrant is eligible to receive services, regardless of status, documentation, or national origin. Fees are based on ability to pay for some essential services.

Advanced Bankruptcy Clinic

The Advanced Bankruptcy Clinic represents debtors in Chapter 13 Proceedings, in which debtors arrange a multi-year payment plan to pay outstanding debts to avoid liquidation. Students in this clinic also represent defendants in Adversary Proceedings in bankruptcy. These proceedings include matters in which a trustee attempts to recover assets transferred by a debtor and similar matters involving contested issues. Students appear in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court under attorney supervision on behalf of their clients.

Bankruptcy Clinic

The Bankruptcy Clinic provides advice and represents clients who are in financial distress. Students gather information from and on behalf of the client and then prepare a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Petition. Students also participate in U.S. Bankruptcy Court at Section 341 hearings as well as prepare, file, and argue numerous bankruptcy motions.

Disaster Relief Clinic

The Disaster Relief Clinic provides students an opportunity to learn basic lawyering skills essential to the practice of law while assisting clients who have been impacted by Hurricane Sandy. Under faculty supervision students represent clients in real estate and land use matters, public benefits including FEMA claims, public utilities issues, insurance matters, employment issues, contractor, and consumer issues as well as issues that have a broad impact on disaster recovery problems affecting a larger number of clients or public policies for disaster recovery or assistance.

Elder Law Clinic

The Elder Law Clinic introduces students to the unique challenges of practicing law on behalf of the elderly, while also providing training in basic law practice skills. As the elderly population has increased, the field of elder law has become a growing specialty, demanding more sophisticated expertise to effectively advise and assist clients.

Under the supervision of experienced faculty, students spend 12 to 15 hours per week advising and representing senior clients in a wide range of legal matters in courts, administrative agencies, and negotiation settings. Through their work, students experience law practice in the larger context of social, supportive, and advocacy services for the elderly. Students also develop an appreciation for the role of lawyers and legal institutions in protecting rights and enhancing the quality of life of the aging population.

Family Law Clinic

The Family Law Clinic offers students the opportunity to learn family law practice from a variety of perspectives, including litigation, negotiation, and court proceedings. Under the supervision of experienced faculty and practitioners, students represent clients in divorce litigation, child support enforcement, and family offense proceedings.

Through an intensive training covering the dynamics of family violence, the social and psychological dimensions of domestic abuse, the system of shelters and social services available to victims, and the police and criminal court procedures involved in the response to domestic violence. Student also learn special skills needed to interview and counsel clients who have endured these traumas.

Because protecting victims of family violence is a major focus of the clinic's mission, students spend one day each week in Family Court, where they interview and represent clients seeking court protection. Whether they secure a negotiated agreement or a court order after trial, students experience the satisfaction of knowing that by obtaining an order of protection, excluding the batterer from the home, or confiscating a weapon, their efforts have gained the client a measure of safety.

Immigration Law Clinic

The Immigration Law Clinic provides students with a variety of practical lawyering skills such as case planning, research, and writing, interviewing, and counseling, in addition to helping individual clients. While advocating for immigrants, students experience how cultural, economic, and political forces influence the treatment of immigrations in our legal system. The clinic is committed to law reform and to advance the cause of social justice.

Mortgage Foreclosure Clinic

Students represent clients whose homes are either in mortgage foreclosure proceedings or are about to go into foreclosure. Representation includes assisting clients to renegotiate the mortgage terms to save their homes, representation in mandatory court conferences and in preparing and presenting a defense available in the foreclosure case.

Veterans' and Servicemembers' Rights Clinic

This Clinic assists veterans and active-duty service members in matters in which military service has created special protections or create unique burdens. Clinic students work closely with the Suffolk County Veterans Court, a specialized part of the Suffolk County court system that helps veterans charged with criminal offenses by diverting them from the traditional criminal justice system and providing them with the tools they need to live productive lives, through treatment and judicial monitoring. Students may also represent veterans in benefits claims, regaining employment after deployment, employment discrimination claims, obtaining accommodations for disabilities and discharge review and update proceedings.

Supported Decision Making New York (an alternative to a guardianship proceeding)-- www.sdmny.org contact via sdmny.info@gmail.com. Provides a trained facilitator, supervised by an experienced mentor, working with the Decision-Maker and their chosen Supporters to negotiate and formalize an agreement, the Supported Decision-Making Agreement (SDMA), that sets out the responsibilities and obligations of the parties. The facilitation process assists the Decision-Maker to understand more about how decisions are made, the different areas where they may want support (health care, education, living arrangements, finances, etc.), and the kinds of support they prefer in each of those areas. Decision-Makers identifies people they would like to be Supporters as well as the kinds of support they want from each one. For example, a Decision-Maker might choose their mother to give support in gathering and understanding information about health care decisions, their dad to support them in developing alternatives and considering consequences about financial decisions, and a sibling and a friend to provide support in gathering information and weighing alternatives in choices about intimacy and relationships. The number of Supporters chosen by a Decision-Maker has varied from 2 to 13, and it is not uncommon for Supporters to be located outside New York (participating in meetings and providing support remotely) and even outside the United States.

Homelessness

Long Island Coalition for the Homeless

600 Albany Avenue
Amityville, NY 11701
631-464-4314

www.addressthehomeless.org

The Long Island Coalition for the Homeless divides its activities into four primary areas:

- Direct services for homeless and at-risk Long Islanders
- Increasing community awareness and involvement in addressing the needs of our homeless and at-risk neighbors
- Coordination with and provision of technical assistance to housing and service providers to create and expand programs for Long Island's homeless
- Cooperation with government entities to develop strategies for the elimination of long-term homelessness on Long Island

Direct Services for Homeless and At Risk Long Islanders:

The Amityville Community Resource Center (CRC)

The Long Island Coalition for the Homeless is the lead entity in a collaboration of organizations that will provide housing and services for homeless veterans at the former Air Force Recruitment Center on Albany Avenue in Amityville. Concern for Independent Living, a non-profit housing developer, will create 60 units of permanent affordable housing for homeless veterans at the site. The Coalition will coordinate the provision of case management, housing placement, job training and placement, crisis intervention and other support services.

Community Assistance Program/Centralized Assessment

The Long Island Coalition for the Homeless operates the Community Assistance Program. Staff provide information and referrals for housing and services to callers seeking help, and assist eligible participants in applying for housing and services, gathering needed documentation, acting as advocate/liaison between the housing/service provider and client. In 2011, LICH provided information and referral services to over 1,200 callers. In addition, LICH staff assisted approximately 50 homeless individuals and families in completing housing referrals, gathering documentation, and submitting applications.

In early 2014, LICH hired a Centralized Assessment Social Worker to provide housing referral assistance to homeless Long Islanders with disabilities. The Social Workers coordinated housing placements with DSS and non-profit housing providers that offer affordable, stable, permanent housing with comprehensive support services.

<http://www.suffolkcountyny.gov/veterans/Home.aspx>Bringing Your Experience Back to Suffolk County

Your experience in the Armed Forces has given you the ability to handle difficult tasks under enormous pressure, the ability to manage groups of people handling a variety of assignments, experience at managing a budget – or any of thousands of different skills that our work force wants and needs. Other county departments and/or community resources can be referred as well.

Mission Statement: Suffolk County Veteran Services Agency is committed to aiding our county veterans and members of the Armed Forces as well as their dependents and survivors through the pursuance of veterans benefits at the County, State and Federal levels and referrals to other agencies for possible assistance with dignity and respect.

Suffolk County is home to the largest population of veterans in New York State and has one of the largest veterans' populations of any county in the United States. We take our responsibility seriously when it comes to providing services for those who have sacrificed and risked so much for this country.

It is the duty of this Agency to inform and assist members of the armed forces, veterans, their dependents and survivors in relation to (1) matters pertaining to education, training and retraining services and facilities, (2) health, medical and rehabilitation services and facilities, (3) provisions of federal, state and local laws and regulations affording special rights and privileges to members of the armed forces, war veterans and their families, (4) employment and re-employment services, and other matters of similar related or appropriate nature.

Our Veterans Service Agency website will regularly provide information on services from housing and career assistance to academic opportunities; thereby helping to ensure veterans and their families receive all benefits entitled.

Began by the efforts of a group of philanthropic Vietnam Veterans, one residence was opened in 1994. UVBH is proud to say we now operate and support 24 locations throughout Nassau and Suffolk Counties (23 for housing and 1 for our headquarters) and provide services to over 185 men, women, and children on any given day. Primarily, UVBH was formed to work with the homeless veteran population of the Tri State area and continues to do so; we work with veterans who come to us with physical disabilities, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, Traumatic Brain Injury, mental health issues and/or alcohol addiction. Many years ago, we expanded our efforts to include assisting the non-veteran population and the issues they face, including homelessness, drug and/or alcohol addiction and job skill/readiness development.

UVBH places each person or family that comes to us in the home and program that best supports their needs. Along with a safe and structured living environment we provide our residents with a host of supportive services, including Case Management, transportation for medical visits and appointments, education and job placement programs and services as well as coordination of all mental and emotional counseling. We also connect our residents with entitlements.
