SPECIAL TERM MOTIONS AND ORDERS TO SHOW CAUSE: Shall be made returnable on alternate Wednesdays in Part 28 at 9:30 a.m. See below for specific dates.

NOTE: Article 81, Infant Settlement, and Structured Settlement Sale matters shall be heard at 11:00 a.m. on Special Term days.

No hard copies of moving, answering and reply papers shall be sent to chambers upon filing. Court requires strict adherence to CPLR 2214 (b). There shall be no counsel appearance if there is no opposition filed before the return date, or if a motion is made ex parte. Regarding contested motions or orders to show cause: for motions to compel, all FIRST return dates shall be conducted via telephone by the Court's Confidential Law Clerk (please make sure the Court has your cell number). For all other contested matters, please check with the Court regarding whether oral argument will be required and the manner in which it will conduct the same.

Motions (and conferences) can only be adjourned a limited number of times upon court permission (even with consent of all parties). Please send any adjournment requests to the Secretary (and Court Clerks, if pertaining to a motion) via email only, and cc all other counsel.

CONFERENCES: First conferences will be scheduled upon Court's receipt of the RJI and take place within forty-five (45) days thereafter. Further conferences will be scheduled as needed or upon request. All conferences will be with the Judge or Law Clerk. Conferences will typically be held telephonically, or in some occasions via Skype for Business when notified by the Court prior thereto. Conferences can only be adjourned a limited number of times upon court permission (even with consent of all parties). Please contact the Secretary via email with all counsel cc'd and, if granted, the conference shall be immediately rescheduled.

TRIALS & HEARINGS: Trials may be adjourned by the Judge only. Hearings may be adjourned by the Judge or Law Clerk. Motions in Limine will be scheduled a reasonable period in advance of trial, typically the week beforehand. Proposed Jury Instructions and Verdict Sheet are required two (2) weeks prior to the Jury Selection date. Conference with the Judge immediately preceding Jury Selection.

ORDERS: Proposed orders following motion argument must be submitted by the prevailing party via NYCEF or in an email to the Law Clerk (all counsel cc'd on same) within two (2) weeks of the Judge's ruling, whether made orally or in writing. A copy of the decision portion of the transcript must be attached to the Order, if so directed by the Court.
