 7. Small Claim Assessment Review Proceedings shall be conducted virtually
- Courts should note the following:
 - All virtual matters shall be held via Skype for Business. Included in the Skype invitation is a call-in number for lawyers and litigants that do not have access to Skype for Business video. In the event a self-represented litigant is unable to access Skype for Business, arrangements shall be made at the courthouse for the litigant to appear virtually.
 - Commercial and Residential tenant/housing matters may proceed pursuant to Administrative Order AO/160A/20. Please note the rules for evictions commenced prior to March 17, 2020 and those commenced on or after March 17, 2020; the requirement for conferencing and the continued stay of evictions commenced on or after March 17, 2020. This order superseded AO/127/20.
 - Foreclosure matters may proceed pursuant to the protocol established in the Memorandum from Chief Administrative Judge Lawrence Marks dated July 24, 2020 and pursuant to Administrative Order AO/157/20 dated July 23, 2020.
 - Default judgments shall not be granted where, pursuant to CPLR 3215, the default occurred after March 16, 2020. Furthermore, no default judgment requiring the defendant's notice pursuant to CPLR 3215(g) shall be granted, unless the application was heard prior to March 17, 2020 and proper notice was given (8th Judicial District's AO 06/20). Notwithstanding the above, a judgment adverse to the party seeking relief (plaintiff, petitioner, moving party, etc.) may be granted if part fails to proceed with action or appear in court.

- ADR shall be conducted virtually (Chief Administrative Judge Lawrence Marks' AO/87/20).
- Arbitrations pursuant to the Part 137 Attorney-Client Fee Dispute Resolution Program will occur virtually.
- Plans to conduct civil and criminal jury trials shall be developed and implemented as approved by the Deputy Chief Administrative Judge. Once plans are approved Civil Jury Summonses may be mailed in Term 10 and Criminal Jury Summonses may be mailed in Term 11 for trials to commence in Term 12.
