SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR JUDICIAL CANDIDATES

PLEASE BE ADVISED:

QUESTION 2(a)
You are required to report your current occupation or employment.

Note: although question 2a refers to your current employment, questions 5a and 13 refer to your employment in the preceding calendar year.

QUESTION 5A
Requires the filer to report certain information about employment "other than the employment listed under item 2 above." This exception applies only to judges, justices and officers and employees of the Unified Court System. Judicial candidates must report such information pertaining to the employment listed under item 2(a), if engaged in that employment in the preceding calendar year. If you were otherwise employed in 2022, report information about that employment. Report the required information pertaining to all of your employment in 2022.

QUESTION 13
Requires the filer to report information about certain income "other than that received by you from the employment listed under item 2 above." This exception applies only to judges, justices and officers and employees of the Unified Court System. Judicial candidates must report their income, in excess of $1,000.00, from the employment listed under item 2(a), if engaged in that employment in the preceding calendar year. If you were otherwise employed in 2022, report that employment, and the category of amount of income received, if in excess of $1,000.00. Report the required information pertaining to all of your employment in 2022.
