Albany City Court to Temporarily Relocate Criminal Operations, Starting Tuesday, April 30

ALBANY, NEW YORK—Administrative Judge Gerald Connolly today announced that beginning Tuesday, April 30, 2024, the Albany City Court-Criminal Part, located in the Public Safety Building at 1 Morton Avenue, will be relocating its operations due to a facility issue.

The 1 Morton Avenue court facility will be closed to the public through mid-May 2024, with all Albany City Court-Criminal Part operations being relocated. During this period, Albany City Court arraignments will be conducted at Albany County Family Court, in the Albany County Family Court Building at 30 Clinton Avenue.

Albany City Court-Criminal operations are also being relocated to the Albany County Judicial Center at 6 Lodge Street.

Persons with upcoming Albany City Court-Criminal Part appearances will be notified, both by email and phone, of location and other changes.

Inquiries regarding Albany City Court-Criminal Part operations may be addressed to Albanycriminalcourt@nycourts.gov.

Inquiries relating to all other Albany City Court operations may be addressed to Albanycivilcourt@nycourts.gov or Albanytrafficcourt@nycourts.gov

Information and updates will also be posted on the Third Judicial District's homepage at <https://ww2.nycourts.gov/courts/3jd/index.shtml>.
