

CITATION

The People of the State of New York
By the Grace of God Free and Independent

To: _____

OBJECTIONS to the Last Will and Testament dated _____ of
_____, deceased heretofore a copy of which has been offered for probate by _____ of _____ having been filed by
_____.
(objectant)

All such objections may be determined at a trial, at a hearing, or a conference on the return date set forth below, or on a subsequent date to be fixed by the court.

Any person who has waived the service of this citation or has been served with the same and who does not appear will not be entitled to further notice. If a settlement is entered into and agreed upon by all parties appearing at the trial, hearing, or conference, such settlement and any final determination by the court will be binding on all parties including those who have waived the service of this citation or have been served with this process and who have failed to appear. Any such persons so failing to appear may be required to contribute to such settlement an amount which bears the same proportion to the total amount of the settlement as his or her interest in the estate bears to the aggregate of the interest in the estate of all persons required to contribute to the settlement.
