

LCF Group, Inc. v LAKS Prop. Mgt. & Servs. LLC

2025 NY Slip Op 35261(U)

November 14, 2025

Supreme Court, Nassau County

Docket Number: Index No. 616727/25

Judge: Gregg Roth

Cases posted with a "30000" identifier, i.e., 2013 NY Slip Op 30001(U), are republished from various New York State and local government sources, including the New York State Unified Court System's eCourts Service.

This opinion is uncorrected and not selected for official publication.

SUPREME COURT - STATE OF NEW YORK

PRESENT:

Honorable Gregg Roth
Justice of the Supreme Court

_____ X

THE LCF GROUP, INC.,

Petitioners,

-against-

LAKS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT AND SERVICES LLC d/b/a LAKS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT AND SERVICES, and RYAN DOYLE, Respondents.

_____ X

TRIAL/IAS, PART 29
NASSAU COUNTY

Index No. 616727/25

Mot. Seq. 001
Motion submitted 9/9/25

The following papers read on this motion:

Notice of Petition/Supporting Exhibits.....X

Petitioner, The LCF Group, Inc. (LCF) petitions this court to confirm an arbitrator’s award. There is no opposition.

According to the petition and supporting papers, on or about April 7, 2025, LCF and LAKS Property Management and Services LLC d/b/a LAKS Property Management and Services (LAKS) entered into an agreement whereby LCF agreed to purchase $29,800.00 of LAKS’ future receivables for an up front payment of $20,000.00. LCF would receive its payment by taking 21.00% of daily receivables via ACH debits from a certain bank account, until it received the $29,800.00. Respondent, Ryan Doyle (Doyle), guaranteed the contract.

The contract also contained an arbitration clause. Should there be a dispute, the parties were required to submit the dispute to New Era ADR. LCF claims that it made the payment minus contractual fees. Respondents made daily payments totaling $11,837.44 until May 12, 2025. Beginning on May 13, 2025, the daily ACH debits initiated by LCF were dishonored due to insufficient funds in the designated bank account. As a result, LCF brought a proceeding on June 23, 2025, through New Era ADR. Respondents did not appear for the arbitration, and after the hearing, the arbitrator awarded LCF $26,974.48 representing the unpaid receivables and other costs and fees. LCF now moves to confirm the award.

“[J]udicial review of arbitration awards is extremely limited” (Matter of Sheriff Officers Assn., Inc. v Nassau County, 113 AD3d 620, 621 [2d Dept 2014], quoting Wien & Malkin LLP v Helmsley–Spear, Inc., 6 NY3d 471, 479 [2006]). In determining any matter arising under CPLR article 75, “the court shall not consider whether the claim with respect to which arbitration is sought is tenable, or otherwise pass upon the merits of the dispute” (CPLR 7501). Accordingly, it is “not for the courts to interpret the substantive conditions of the contract or to determine the merits of the dispute” (Matter of United Fed’n. of Teachers, Local 2, AFT, AFL–CIO v Board of Educ. of City School Dist. of City of N.Y., 1 NY3d 72, 82–83 [2003], quoting Board of Educ., Lakeland Cent. School Dist. of Shrub Oak v Barni, 51 NY2d 894 [1980]). “An arbitration award must be upheld when the arbitrator ‘offer[s] even a barely colorable justification for the outcome reached’” (Wien & Malkin LLP v Helmsley–Spear, Inc., 6 NY3d at 479, quoting Matter of Andros Compania Maritima, S.A. [Marc Rich & Co., A.G.], 579 F2d 691, 704 [2d Cir 1978]).

The Court of Appeals has recognized “three narrow grounds that may form the basis for vacating an arbitrator's award—that it violates public policy, is irrational, or clearly exceeds a specifically enumerated limitation on the arbitrator's power” (Matter of Shenendehowa Cent. Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. [Civil Serv. Empls. Assn., Inc., Local 1000, AFSCME, AFL-CIO, Local 864], 20 NY3d 1026, 1027 [2013]; see Matter of New York City Tr. Auth. v Transport Workers Union of Am., Local 100, 14 NY3d 119, 124 [2010]).

The petition to confirm will be denied as the court finds the arbitrator’s award irrational and violative of public policy. The award of $26,974.48 is nearly two times the amount of money respondents actually received. Aside from the unpaid receivables, LCF charged a $2,500.00 default fee, and $535 in insufficient fund fees. The insufficient fund fees represent the assessment of $35 for each time an ACH debit was dishonored. However, the insufficient fund fees continued to be assessed after LCF declared respondents in default. Furthermore, also included in the amount awarded were “collection fees” of $5,986.92, which are 33.33% of the amount owed. Moreover, the contract between the parties provides for recovery of “reasonable attorney’s fees” and for collection fees “liquidated at the sum of 33.33%” of the amount owed. In the Arbitration Statement of Robert Kleiber, Chief Financial Officer of LCF, it is made clear that the collection fees and attorney’s fees are one and the same. Despite the labels provided, by basing the amount of counsel/collection fees on the amount owed, as opposed to work actually performed, the court sees the fees as liquidated damages that are really an inappropriate penalty for the default, and therefore void as against public policy (see Truck Rent-A-Ctr. v Puritan Farms 2nd, 41 NY2d 420 [1977]; Equitable Lumber Corp., supra, 38 NY2d 516 [1976] and Matter of First Nat’l. Bank of E. Islip, 42 NY2d 471, 474 [1977]). In total, the fees increased the amount of the arbitration award by 50% over the amount of actual unpaid receivables. Under the circumstances of this case, the court finds the award irrational.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED, that the petition is DENIED.

This constitutes the Decision and Order of the court.

Dated: November 14, 2025
Mineola, N.Y.

Hon. Gregg Roth, J.S.C.

ENTERED

Nov 21 2025

NASSAU COUNTY
COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE