

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Prior to Certification: If you change your address after you have submitted your application to the New York State Board of Law Examiners (hereinafter the Board) but before you have been certified by the Board to a particular Appellate Division, you must promptly notify the Board of your new address. The change of address may be completed online, via the Board's online portal.

After Certification, but Prior to Admission: If you change your address after certification by the Board but before your admission to a particular Appellate Division, you must promptly notify the appropriate Appellate Division of your new address. For the Appellate Division, Third Department, the appropriate email address is AD3AdmissionsOffice@nycourts.gov.

After Admission: If you change your address after admission to the bar, you must promptly notify the Office of Court Administration Attorney Registration Unit via your Attorney Online Services account. Any inquiries in this regard may be directed to the Attorney Registration Unit via email to attyreg@nycourts.gov or phone at 212-428-2800.
