

Large Embossed Certificates of Admission/Wall Scrolls

Upon your admission to the practice of law by the Appellate Division, Third Judicial Department, you may order a large embossed certificate of admission or wall scroll suitable for framing through third-party vendor The Award Group (www.TheAwardGroup.com).

If you were admitted to the practice of law on or after January 21, 2016, following your admission, The Award Group will, as a matter of course, contact you via email with applicable ordering information and instructions.

If you were admitted to the practice of law before January 21, 2016, to order a large embossed certificate from The Award Group you must submit your name, approximate date of admission, current mailing address, and current email address to this Court's Office of Attorney Admissions at AD3Admissions@nycourts.gov. This Office will submit your information to The Award Group, which will then contact you via email with applicable ordering information and instructions.
