

Q&A for RFB # OCA/JM-161
Bid Opening Date: November 12, 2009 Time: 3pm

Q1. Is there a previous contract for this equipment?

A1. Yes, there is. It is PA 03686 and the current contract extension expires on 12/31/09. (See attached).

Q2. Who is the vendor currently servicing the equipment?

A2. The current vendor is Eastern Terminals & Communications.

Q3. What was the cost of the last year's contract and is this the same equipment as last year's contract?

A3. See A1. It is the same equipment as the last contract.

Q4. Is the contract available for viewing?

A4. See A1.

Q5. Is there a service history available?

A5. According to the end user, there is no service history listed.

Q6. Is all of the equipment currently up and running?

A6. Yes

Q7. Do you have an equipment list with all the models of the printers?

A7. See A1. The model number is Microplex F24.

Q8. It would be helpful if we could get your definition of emergency services to be performed on the printers.

A8. Emergency service means if a printer breaks down we need to know how quickly service can be provided and what are the costs for providing a quick response.

Q9. Do the F24's at the Unified Court System have any options attached such as power paper stackers or cutters?

A9. Yes. Optional power stacker only.

Q10. What are the zip codes of the cities the printers are located in?

A10. The locations and zip codes are as follows: Albany (12207), Bronx (10451), Binghamton (13901), Plattsburgh (12901), New York City (10007), Brooklyn (11201), Utica (13501), Syracuse (13202), Goshen (10924), Staten Island (10301), New City (10956), Ballston Spa (12020), Schenectady (12305), Canton (13617), Kingston (12401) and White Plains (10601).

Q11. Regarding “Maintenance and Emergency Service Cost” does that refer to 24 hour/7 day a week response or during normal business hours for those without a maintenance contract?

A11. It is normal business hours for those without a maintenance contract.
