The Senior Court Reporter title is graded at JG-27. Effective April 1, 2010, the hiring rate is $80,508. In addition, appointees in New York City, Nassau, Rockland, Suffolk, and Westchester Counties receive $3,697 in annual location pay. Appointees in Orange, Dutchess and Putnam counties receive $1,848 in annual location pay.

APPLICATION

Application must be ELECTRONICALLY filed at www.nycourts.gov/careers/. Paper applications will not be accepted for filling. An email address is required for successful filing.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF WORK

Senior Court Reporters are responsible for verbatim recording and transcribing testimony in formal and informal court settings such as trials, conferences, calendar calls, arraignments and hearings. Senior Court Reporters work in the Court of Claims, the Supreme Court, and those County Courts with two or more full-time County Court Judges or one full-time County Court Judge and combined annual filings of indictments and Supreme Court civil actions exceeding 650. They may also be assigned to record and transcribe administrative hearings or to work in other courts during emergencies or in a difficult or protracted proceeding. They may also perform courtroom clerical duties related to the matters before the court and back office clerical tasks and other related duties.

ELIGIBLE LISTS AND LOCATION OF POSITIONS

The eligible list resulting from this examination will be used to fill positions throughout New York State. An open-competitive examination, Senior Court Reporter (45-767), is being held in conjunction with this promotion examination. The promotion list will be used to make appointments before appointments are made from the list established from the open-competitive examination.

MINIMUM
QUALIFICATIONS TO COMPETE

To be eligible to compete, candidates must, by the date of the examination, have current permanent^{} competitive class status as a Court Reporter.

Examination is scheduled to be held on April 9, 2011

Applications must be ELECTRONICALLY
submitted no later than February 2, 2011

MINIMUM
QUALIFICATIONS
APPOINTMENT

To be eligible for appointment, candidates must by the date of appointment have one (1) year of current permanent competitive class service as a Court Reporter.

Under Section 25.15(h) of the Rules of the Chief Judge, this includes: (1) employees of the Unified Court System who are holding or who have held positions in the non-competitive, exempt or labor class if said employees in the past have held qualifying competitive class positions on a permanent basis and (2) employees with non-competitive status in qualifying titles by virtue of the Handicapped Set Aside Program (HSAP).

RESIDENCY

New York State residency is not a requirement to compete in this examination or for appointment from the eligible list.

PROBATIONARY REQUIREMENT

As a condition of successful completion of the one-year probationary period, Senior Court Reporters must demonstrate proficiency in, and use of, computer-aided transcription (CAT).

EXAMINATION CENTERS

This examination will be held only in the following test centers: Albany (01), Binghamton (06), Buffalo (08), Nassau County (21), New York City (24), Nyack (42), Rochester (35), Suffolk County (9), and Syracuse (38).

EXAMINATION

The examination for Senior Court Reporter will consist of two components as described below: a written test and a dictation performance test presented through a video format. Candidates must obtain a passing score on each of the two components. The written component will be weighted 25% and the performance component will be weighted 75% of the final ranked score.

WRITTEN TEST

The written examination will consist of multiple-choice questions designed to assess the following:

1. Knowledge of English Grammar and Usage, Punctuation and Sentence Structure
These questions assess candidates' ability to apply the rules of English grammar, usage, punctuation and sentence structure. Candidates are presented with a series of sentences and must select the sentence that best conforms to standard English grammar, usage, punctuation and sentence structure.
2. Spelling and General Vocabulary
These questions assess candidates' knowledge of the spelling and meaning of words and phrases that court reporters may encounter in their daily work.
3. Knowledge of Medical, Legal and Technical Terminology
These questions assess candidates' knowledge of the medical, legal, and technical terminology that court reporters may encounter in their daily work. These questions may include, but are not limited to, terms from fields such as law, forensic science, anatomy, physiology and medicine.

SCORING - The written test is weighted 25%. The passing score for the written examination will be determined at a date following the administration of the examination.

PERFORMANCE TEST

The performance component of the Senior Court Reporter exam consists of the following two parts:

1. TRANSCRIPTION: Candidates are required to take and transcribe an Opening Statement of Counsel (averaging 185 words per minute for 3 minutes) and Testimony involving four voices, including examination of witnesses, objections, rulings, etc. (averaging 200 words per minute for 5 minutes).
2. READ-BACK: Candidates are also required to take and later read back a Judge's Charge (averaging 185 words per minute for 3 minutes). Candidates are given 5 minutes to study their notes from dictation and 10 minutes to read back the Charge. Candidates must be able to produce a paper record of their stenographic notes and read from these notes for this portion of the examination.

SCORING - The performance test is weighted 75%. Candidates must have an average of not more than five (5) errors per one hundred words dictated in order to obtain a passing mark of 70 on the overall performance test which includes the transcription and read-back sections of the test.

TIMING - Candidates are given a total of 2½ hours to complete the transcription and read-back parts of the performance test.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Only shorthand writing machines will be permitted. Real-time translation is not permitted and computers will not be allowed to be used during the dictation or the read-back portion of the examination. The audiosync function of stenographic machines equipped with this feature must be turned off. Audio or video recording devices will not be allowed. Candidates using paperless writers must produce paper notes.
2. Stenographic paper, computer disks and flash cards will not be available at the test site. Candidates must provide their own equipment and supplies necessary to record, transcribe and print the examination. Proper functioning of equipment and having sufficient supplies are the sole responsibilities of the candidate.
3. The transcription portion of the dictation must be completed on a typewriter, personal computer, or with the use of computer-aided transcription (CAT). Candidates must provide their own equipment to transcribe the dictation. Laptop computers and compact printers are preferred since transcription space will be limited. Typewriters and computers will not be available at any of the examination sites.
4. All notes, tapes, and diskettes must be given to the Monitor at the close of the examination. Candidates who plan to use stenographic machines requiring diskettes must bring a blank diskette to the examination. After the exam, candidates using stenographic machines with internal memories or who use a memory flash card, will be required to reformat the writer's memory or flash drives and delete any files from their computer's hard drive. Therefore, candidates should be careful to arrive at the examination with NO files stored in the stenographic machine's RAM or on the memory flash card. Candidates must turn off the power to their machines at the close of the examination.
5. Use of dictionaries (English, Legal and/or Medical) will be permitted during the performance component of the examination only. Candidates must supply their own dictionaries. Sharing of dictionaries is not permitted.
6. Use of cell phones and beepers is not permitted at the test site and these devices must be turned off before entering the test center. You will not be permitted to make or receive any calls or electronic messages until the examination is over, and you are dismissed from the test center. Children and pets are not permitted at the test center.
7. Access to the Internet will not be permitted during the examination.

TRANSCRIPTION GUIDELINES FOR CANDIDATES

1. Candidates are responsible for producing their own transcripts without assistance. Candidates must use their own dictionary, and perform their own translating, editing, and printing functions.
2. Additional transcription time will not be allowed for equipment failure, candidate mishaps such as accidental erasing of computer files, or forgotten items (e.g., cables, power cords).
3. Candidates are personally responsible for the functioning, or the failure to function, of their machines. Should any equipment fail to function properly, be dropped, stolen, broken, etc., neither the site, the Chief Examiner, nor the Office of Court Administration is responsible.
4. Candidates are responsible for all necessary hardware and software including computer-aided transcription (CAT) writers, computers, security keys, blank disks, printers, cables, extension cords, adapters, and surge protector/power strips.
5. The printing of rough drafts is permitted; however, the following rules apply:
 - All rough draft pages must be submitted with the final test transcript.
 - All rough draft pages must be clearly marked "Rough Draft" and a large "X" marked across the page to distinguish them from final copies.
 - No printer may be shared with another candidate. In the event of a printer failure the candidate may use the remaining test time to transcribe the dictation on a personal typewriter that he or she brings to the test center.
6. Candidates are prohibited from viewing or handling another candidate's test material. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in automatic disqualification. Sharing of test material by electronic or manual transmission, via email, text messaging or any other means is not permitted.
7. Candidates, including those withdrawing from the examination, are required to submit the following items to the room monitor:
 1. Writer Disk (with 9-digit Social Security Number on it)
 2. All rough drafts
 3. Final transcript.
8. Candidates whose writer does not use a floppy disk but has a RAM or may use a memory flash card, will be required to reformat the writer's memory after the examination. Therefore, we strongly recommend any jobs in the memory be eliminated prior to arriving for the examination.

PLEASE NOTE:

- TYPEWRITERS AND TRANSCRIPTION PAPER ARE NOT AVAILABLE AT ANY TEST SITE. YOU MAY BRING YOUR OWN TYPEWRITER. IF YOU BRING AN ELECTRIC TYPEWRITER, YOU MUST ALSO BRING AN EXTENSION CORD AT LEAST 10 FEET LONG. IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT YOU BRING AT LEAST 50 SHEETS OF TRANSCRIPTION PAPER.

ISSUE DATE: December 22, 2010

INFORMATION FOR PROMOTION CANDIDATES - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

APPLICATION: The Office of Court Administration no longer accepts paper applications for promotional examinations. The application (UCS-19) must be submitted electronically via the internet. The application internet address is www.nycourts.gov/careers/. The applicant's email address is required for successful submission. Separate applications must be submitted if an applicant is applying to more than one examination.

SENIORITY CREDITS: Successful candidates will have additional seniority credits added to their final rating, based upon their length of continuous permanent service in the Unified Court System.

VETERANS CREDITS: Disabled and non disabled veterans who are eligible for extra credit will have 5 and 2 ½ points respectively, added to their scores, if they are otherwise successful in the examination. Eligible veterans should claim those credits when they file their application. Further information regarding instructions for filing and eligibility is contained in the application. If veterans credits are granted, eligibles will have an option to waive them anytime prior to appointment.

VERIFICATION OF QUALIFICATIONS: The Office of Court Administration may refuse to examine an applicant, or after examination, to include a candidate on the eligible list, or may remove or restrict from the eligible list any applicant who is found to lack any of the established requirements for admission to the examination or for appointment from the resultant eligible list.

EXAMINATION RATINGS: Examination final ratings are reported on a scale of 100 with the passing mark set at 70. The passing raw score for the written examination will be determined at a date following the administration of the examination.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS: Candidates who, for religious reasons, cannot be tested on a Saturday must indicate this information on their application. All other requests for alternate test dates must be submitted at least one month prior to the examination date, and will be reviewed on a case by case basis for compliance with the Alternate Test Date Guidelines of the Unified Court System. Applicants with disabilities who require special arrangements should contact the Coordinator of Special Accommodations at (212) 428-2580 or TDD (telecommunications device for the deaf) (212) 428-2781 by the close of the filing period for the examination.

WARNING: Anyone found unlawfully possessing or disclosing questions and answers from civil service examinations, or giving or taking test information from another candidate during or after the examination, or anyone found taking a civil service examination for someone else or enlisting another person to take an examination for another will be subject to disqualification from that examination and may be barred from taking any future examinations with the Unified Court System and may be subject to other penalties as prescribed by law.

CANDIDATES SHOULD CONTACT THE OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION AT (212) 428-2580 IF THEY HAVE NOT RECEIVED THEIR ADMISSION NOTICE VIA E-MAIL FIVE (5) DAYS BEFORE THE APRIL 9, 2011 EXAMINATION DATE
