An equivalent combination of education and experience.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF WORK:

Under general supervision, Principal Law Librarians are responsible for providing professional library service and assisting the Chief Law Librarian in the formulation and implementation of statewide legal research collection policies and directly participating in statewide library planning. They evaluate existing library systems and services for sufficiency in meeting the needs of the users of the collection, and set standards for the currency, relevance and completeness of these systems and services. They serve as a resource for new developments in the law library profession, resolve complex questions related to the application of library classification and cataloging systems, and coordinate resource sharing among several collections. Principal Law Librarians, in concert with the local administrative office, are responsible for budget preparation, resource allocation, and other administrative duties. Principal Law Librarians supervise Senior Law Librarians, Law Librarians and clerical personnel, and may perform legal research and other related duties. Principal Law Librarians generally have direct responsibility for a legal research collection that is extensive and specialized. Such collections are the largest in the Unified Court System and have access to several automated legal research and library systems, and regularly serve a very large number of judges. In addition, Principal Law Librarians may be responsible for several chambers collections and overseeing the operations of several geographically separate collections (other than those in individual chambers).
