Suffolk County Courts To Pay Tribute To World Trade Center Volunteers

CENTRAL ISLIP, NY - Suffolk County's Administrative Judge, Alan D. Oshrin, is pleased to announce that the Suffolk County Courts will be holding a special ceremony to honor those court employees who voluntarily assisted in the rescue and recovery efforts at Ground Zero in the days and weeks following the September 11th attack. The ceremony will be on Wednesday, April 10, 2002, at 11:00 a.m., in the Central Jury Room of the Cohalan Court Complex in Central Islip.

The ceremony will feature the Honorable Judith S. Kaye, Chief Judge of the State of New York, who will be delivering the keynote address.

According to Justice Oshrin, "This ceremony will allow us to acknowledge the unselfish and tireless efforts of each volunteer who traveled into lower Manhattan on their own time and at their own expense, under very stressful circumstances and without regard for their own safety or welfare, at all hours of the day and night. It is my hope that the extraordinary efforts of these volunteers will inspire others to emulate their fine example."

The press is invited to attend the ceremonies.
