Constance Killackey is Suffolk County's Court Employee of the Month

CENTRAL ISLIP, N.Y. - Suffolk County's District Administrative Judge, Alan D. Oshrin, is pleased to announce that Constance Killackey, a Senior Data Entry Clerk in the New Petitions Department in the Family Court in Central Islip, is being honored on August 14, 2002, as Employee of the Month for July.

Connie began her career as an Office Typist in the Family Court in May of 1978. Over the years she has been assigned to various departments within the Family Court, including Docketing, Dispositions, New Petitions as well as the Hearing Examiners Department. Since 1985, Connie has worked in the New Petitions Department as a Data Entry Clerk, Senior Office Assistant and, for the past three (3) years, as a Senior Data Entry Clerk. As a Senior Data Entry Clerk, Connie is responsible for a wide variety of duties, including the review of petitions which are filed in the Family Court, the assignment of docket numbers to petitions, the entry of various case information into the computer, the assignment of emergency petitions, the training of new court personnel within the department, as well as providing assistance to court patrons on a daily basis.

Connie, a long time resident of Centereach, is the proud mother of four (4) children, Diane Dunn of Texas, Eric Killackey of New Jersey, Keith Killackey of Middle Island and Eileen Killackey of Centereach. All are very proud of their mother's accomplishments as well, but Connie's biggest fans are her eight (8) grandchildren, five (5) of whom are expected to be able to share in their grandmother's special day; Andrew, age 11, Kristin, age 10, Kristopher, age 7, Kyle, age 6 and Lauren, 3 months of age.

Connie is being recognized for over twenty-four (24) years of unsurpassed dedication and commitment to her job as well as to her colleagues in the Suffolk County Courts. Over the years she has consistently performed her daily responsibilities in a superior manner. Simply put, Connie is the type of employee that any department would love to have. On a daily basis, she goes above and beyond by taking on additional duties to ensure that her department runs as efficiently as possible. Moreover, Connie enthusiastically makes herself available to her fellow workers for assistance, she is truly a team player.

In sum, Connie is a model public servant who has always given her best, day in and day out. Anyone who has ever been assisted by Connie knows of her genuine kindness and unyielding patience. Without a doubt, her presence over the past twenty-four (24) years has truly made the Family Court in Suffolk County a better place and, for that alone, she is most deserving of July's Employee of the Month Award.
