Suffolk County Courts Celebrate Women's History Month

CENTRAL ISLIP, N.Y. - District Administrative Judge, Alan D. Oshrin, is pleased to announce that the Suffolk County Courts and the Suffolk County Women in the Courts Committee are sponsoring a celebration of National Women's History Month in a special ceremony to be held on March 18, 2002, at 3:00 p.m., in the central jury room of the Cohalan Court Complex in Central Islip.

The ceremony will be presided over by the Hon. Alan D. Oshrin, District Administrative Judge, and will feature the Hon. Juanita Bing Newton, Deputy Administrative Judge for Justice Initiatives, who will be delivering the keynote address.

Special recognition will go to Suffolk County's former Chief

Clerks, Grace Campbell of the Family Court and Eileen O'Rourke and Linda Weaver of the County Court. The honorees are being recognized for their outstanding careers and for serving as role models for all women.

Justice Oshrin observed, "Grace Campbell, Eileen O'Rourke and Linda Weaver exemplify the wonderful career opportunities available in the Unified Court System. Their professional nature and dignified strength were their hallmarks over the years."

In addition to the festivities scheduled for March 18, 2002, a pictorial display of former women chief clerks as well as past and present women judges and justices who have served on the bench in Suffolk County will be exhibited throughout the month of March, on the 2nd floor mezzanine of the Cohalan Court Complex, between the Supreme Court and District Court buildings.

Justice Oshrin and the Suffolk County Women in the Courts Committee invite all to attend and to visit this most impressive exhibit.

The press is invited to attend this celebration.
