

Centralized Motion Part Closed
November 25th, 2016
December 26th, 2016 through January 2nd, 2017

Please be advised that the Centralized Motion Part will be closed on November 25th, 2016. Kindly note that all motions and orders to show cause made returnable for that date will be administratively adjourned by the court. The movant shall be responsible for ascertaining the new court date and notifying all parties entitled to notice. Additionally, no foreclosure auctions will be conducted on November 25th, 2016.

Holiday Recess
December 26th, 2016 through January 2nd, 2017

The 2016-2017 Holiday Recess will commence effective close of business December 23rd, 2016. The court will resume regular operations on Tuesday January 3rd, 2017. During the recess all IAS parts will be closed including TSP, Preliminary Conference Part, Compliance Conference, Centralized Motion Part and no foreclosure matters will be calendared. All matters made returnable during this period will be administratively adjourned by the court. The movant shall be responsible for ascertaining the new court date and notifying all parties entitled to notice. The court will remain open to hear emergency applications and all back offices will be open during the recess period with the exception of the Long Island City Facility which will be closed during this period. Mental Hygiene hearings and proceedings will be held on the normally scheduled days during the recess period.

Please note no foreclosure auctions are to be scheduled for December 23rd and December 30th, 2016.