December 6, 2010	December 20, 2010*

Dates marked with asterisk (*) are for submissions only. There will be no oral argument on these dates.

Moving papers are to be submitted to the appropriate Court Clerk (addresses listed below) no later than five (5) business days prior to the return date of the motion, and all responding papers are to be filed with the Court Clerk by noon of the business day immediately preceding the return date. Since most special terms will be held on a Monday, moving papers must be filed with the Court clerk no later than Monday, or the first business day, of the preceding week, and responding papers must be filed with the Court Clerk before noon on Friday of the same week. The failure to file responding papers will be deemed to be a consent to the relief requested.

Attendance at Special Term by attorneys is optional, however, an attorney who appears will be allowed to present his or her arguments to the Court even though his or her adversary may not be present. Adjournments will be granted only upon the consent of all parties.
