

Motions may be made returnable by the movant on any business day. Appearances are not required on the return date and are considered submitted. Oral argument may be held if requested by the parties and/or in the discretion of the court and the parties will be notified of the date and time in the event appearances are required. The court will set a return date when it signs an order to show cause and appearances are required on the date set by the court.